1. What was a highlight for you in this week’s message?

2. How did you first come to Seaside Community Church?

Next week scriptures: Romans 16:1-27

3. As we celebrate another Seaside anniversary, it's good to reflect on our mission statement: "Love, grow and serve for the glory of God." What are some ways these actions bring glory to God?

4. In today's social and political climate, Ephesians 4:26-27 is especially important. How does control of anger and annoyance preserve love and relationships?

6. Insights from Romans, Part 3: Romans 9-11 focuses on God's faithfulness and his promises. Describe one or two things you have learned from your study of those chapters.

5. Christian growth is vital to our well-being, yet it takes effort. What have you found useful to help you keep at it?
