

Ruth: Hardship to Harvest
Every Story Matters
Ruth 3

1. What was one thing that Tori said that challenged you, or caused you to think or celebrate?
2. Read chapter 3 as a group. What observations can you make about the three main characters?
3. We see the language of covering and protection throughout the scriptures (Ruth 2:12, 3:9, Psalm 91, and Matthew 11:28). Discuss some areas of your life that need the encouragement of God's protection.

4. Ruth takes risks by approaching Boaz. Boaz goes out of his way to provide for Ruth and takes risks to support her. Why were their choices risky? Why were they willing to take these risks; what did they have to gain? What can we learn from their courage and trust?
5. Boaz is claiming some of the most noble virtues of an Israelite in a Moabite woman. See 3:10-11. How can this be a model for the way we love our neighbors?
6. Look back at chapters 1 and 2. How have we seen Naomi's process and heart change?
