

4. Share a time that you experienced, listening for God to speak, and hearing him answer.

5. We can understand Samuel's reluctance to share the word of the Lord with Eli (vs. 15) Share about a time when you had to share something hard with someone. What do you feel is the best way to share hard news?

6. Read Isaiah 43:16-21. What new beginnings are you experiencing in your life right now? What things are shifting in your life that could be signs of God doing a new thing in you personally or in your community?

7. Close your time together in prayer and encourage each other by praying for your new beginnings.
