An English patriot was arrested in the UK for chanting “Come on, England.”

Why? Because it might offend migrants. He was accused of Islamophobia — for cheering on his own country.

Let that sink in.

When did national pride become illegal?

Revelation 13:16-18

¹⁶ And he causes all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free men and the slaves, to be given a mark on their right hand or on their forehead, ¹⁷ and he provides that no one will be able to buy or to sell, except the one who has the mark, either the name of the beast or the number of his name. ¹⁸ Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for the number is that of a man; and his number is six hundred and sixty-six.

RFK Jr. wants a wearable on your wrist

By KELLY HOOPER and CARMEN PAUN | 06/24/2025 02:00 PM EDT

Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. sees big health benefits for wearable wearers.

Secretary Kennedy   · 23m

Wearables put the power of health back in the hands of the American people.

We're launching one of the largest HHS campaigns in history to encourage their use—so every American can take control of their health, one data point at a time.

It's a key part of our mission to Make America Healthy Again.
