1 Peter 1:4-5

“⁴ to obtain an inheritance which is imperishable and undefiled and will not fade away, reserved in heaven for you, ⁵ who are protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.”

Perseverance of the Saints = Perseverance in Good Works to the End of One's Life to Prove that He is One of the Elect

“P” stands for “Perseverance of the Saints.” This is what Calvinists say gives them the assurance of eternal security, but in actuality “the emphasis is upon the believer’s faithfulness in persevering—not upon God’s keeping power ... uncertainty as to one’s ultimate salvation is, in fact, built into the very fabric of Calvinism itself.”

Old things do pass away; and behold all things do become new; but all such experiences are but secondary evidences, as to the fact of salvation, in that they grow out of that positive repose of faith which is the primary evidence.”

Assurance of Salvation in Calvinism?

Calvinism and the Assurance of Salvation

“Once fully indoctrinated into Calvinism, the Calvinist is left wondering for the rest of his life if he is one of the elect. This is not a walk of faith but of doubt, and it is totally unscriptural. Scripture says that we can walk in assurance of eternal life.”

John MacArthur

The Gospel According to Jesus, p. 23

“Genuine assurance comes from seeing the Holy Spirit’s transforming work in one’s life.”

Westminster Confession Chapter XVII, Article III

– Of the Assurance of Grace and Salvation

“This infallible assurance doth not so belong to the essence of faith, but that a true believer will wait long, and conflict with many difficulties before he be a partaker of it.”

John Calvin

Norman F. Douty, The Death of Christ (Irving, TX: Williams & Watrous Pub. Co., Revised and Enlarged Edition, 1978), p. 176, citing John Calvin from F. F. Bruce's "Answers and Questions," Questions 1331, in The Harvester (Exeter) January 1966.

Even John Calvin himself did not possess assurance of salvation. Writing in his will shortly before his death in 1564, he declared: "I testify also and profess that I humbly seek from God, that He may so will me to be washed and purified by the great Redeemer's blood, shed for the sins of the human race, that it may be permitted me to stand before His tribunal under the covert of the Redeemer Himself" (italics added).

John Piper

John Piper and Pastoral Staff, TULIP: What We Believe about the Five Points of Calvinism: Position Paper of the Pastoral Staff (Desiring God Ministries, 1997), 25, cited in Dave Hunt, What Love is This?, 379.

“No Christian can be sure that he is a true believer. Hence, there is an ongoing need to be dedicated to the Lord and to deny ourselves so that we might make it.”

“What causes me to be anxious is the possibility that I may not be a Christian—that I might be fake / that everything I’ve ever done might be a farce—those are horrible, horrible thoughts; right?”

R.C. Sproul, Jr.

“Assurance of Salvation” (Tabletalk, Ligonier Ministries, 1989), p. 20

“A while back I had one of those moments... Suddenly the question hit me: ‘R.C. what if you are not one of the redeemed? What if your destiny is not heaven after all, but hell?’ Let me tell you that I was flooded in my body with the chill that went from my head to the bottom of my spine. I was terrified. I begin to take stock of my life, and I looked at my performance. My sins came pouring into my mind, and the more I looked at myself the worst I felt. I thought, ‘maybe it’s really true. Maybe I’m not saved after all.’...Then I remembered John 6:68. Jesus had . . .

R.C. Sproul, Jr.

. . . been giving out hard teaching, and many of His former followers had left Him. When He asked Peter if he was also going to leave, Peter said, ‘where else can we go? Only you have the words of eternal life.’ In other words, Peter was also uncomfortable, but he realized that being uncomfortable with Jesus was better than any other option.”

Interestingly, it has been recorded that “nearly all of the Puritan ‘divines’ [men who were Calvinistic and taught perseverance] went through great dread and despair on their deathbeds as they realized their lives did not give perfect evidence that they were elect.”

R.T. Kendall

R.T. Kendall, Grace: You Don't Deserve It. You Can't Buy It. You Can't Live without It. (Lake Mary, FL: Charisma House, 2006), 3.

“I went to Oxford in 1973 to study John Owen’s doctrine of the priestly work of Christ. It turned out that my thesis took a different direction, but it plunged me deep indeed into the Puritans (p. 3).”

R.T. Kendall, Grace: You Don't Deserve It. You Can't Buy It. You Can't Live without It. (Lake Mary, FL: Charisma House, 2006), 3.

“For no one could claim to be saved if they did not keep the works of the Law. Not that you could lose your salvation; it only meant you were not really converted in the first place if there was not a careful keeping of the Ten Commandments. After all, one dare not look directly to Christ for assurance—that would be presumptuous; one looked to his own faithfulness in keeping the Law first, and then—and only then—did one have the warrant to look to Christ for salvation. I kept telling myself that what these Puritans wrote surely was not what they appeared to be saying. I kept reading” (p. 3).

R.T. Kendall

R.T. Kendall, Grace: You Don't Deserve It. You Can't Buy It. You Can't Live without It. (Lake Mary, FL: Charisma House, 2006), 4.

“Most of the Puritans that I read can be described in this scenario: How do you know you are saved? By your sanctification. How do you know you have sanctification? By good works. How do you know what good works are? By the Ten Commandments (p. 4).”

R.T. Kendall

R.T. Kendall, Grace: You Don't Deserve It. You Can't Buy It. You Can't Live without It. (Lake Mary, FL: Charisma House, 2006), 4.

“It is not that they believed you are saved by good works; it was merely that you could not know you are saved unless you kept the Ten Commandments. Martin Luther’s discovery that we are justified by faith alone had sadly passed behind a cloud (p. 4).”

“I was also surprised to learn how so many of the Puritans died. William Perkins (1558-1602), the architectural mind for what became the tradition that led to the historic Westminster Confession of Faith, died ‘in the conflict of a troubled conscience.’ His immediate successor Paul Baynes (d. 1617) ‘went out of this world, with far less comfort than many weaker Christians enjoy.’ Sadly, this kind of dying testimony was not uncommon (p. 4).”

Cardinal John O'Connor of NY quoted in Samuel Howe Verhovek, Cardinal Defends a Jailed Bishop Who Warned Cuomo on Abortion, New York Times, February 1, 1990.

“Church teaching is that I don't know, at any given moment, what my eternal future will be... I can hope, pray, do my very best – but I still don't know. Pope John II doesn't absolutely know that he will go to heaven, nor does mother Theresa of Calcutta, unless either has had a special divine revelation.”

“Many trusted in his name; i.e., because of the manner in which his power was displayed they accepted him as a great prophet and perhaps even as the Messiah. This, however, is not the same as saying that they surrendered their hearts to him. Not all faith is saving faith...”

“As a divine gift, faith is neither transient nor impotent. It has an abiding quality that guarantees its endurance to the end.”

“...The faith God gives can never evaporate.”

John MacArthur

Saved Without A Doubt, p. 177

“If a person fails to love and obey the Lord through the trials of life, then there is no evidence that he possesses saving faith. How many people do you know who came to church for a while, had a little trouble in their lives, and left? Although they may have made a profession of faith in Christ, they cannot be identified as those who love Him because their lives are not characterized by enduring obedience.”

James White

James R. White, The Potter's Freedom
(Amityville, NY: Calvary Press Publishing, 2000), 293.

“Why do some stumble and fall while others persevere? Is it that some are better, stronger, than others? No. The reason lies in the difference between having saving faith and a faith that is not divine in origin or nature. Many are those who make professions not based upon regeneration, and the ‘faith’ that is theirs will not last...These are those who have false, human faith that does not last. But those with true faith produce fruit and remain.”

LIGONIER CONFERENCE 2016

John Piper

John Piper, Desiring God (Sisters, OR: Multnomah, 1986), 65. This quote also appeared verbatim in the 1996 reprinting of Desiring God, but it was rephrased in the 2003 and 2011 editions.

“Saving faith is no simple thing. It has many dimensions. ‘Believe on the Lord Jesus’ is a massive command. It contains a hundred other things. Unless we see this, the array of conditions for salvation in the New Testament will be utterly perplexing.”

R.C. Sproul – Bob Wilkin as quoted in:

Bob Wilkin, “Ligonier National Conference” (The Grace Report, July 2000);

http://www.gracebiblestudies.org/Resources/Web/www.duluthbible.org/g_f_j/EternalSecurity12.htm

“During the first message presented at Ligonier’s Conference in Orlando last June, Dr. R. C. Sproul indicated that Dr. James Boice, a scheduled speaker at the conference, was dying in faith that very night. Then at the end of the message he asked all 5,000 of us present to pray that Jim dies in faith. This struck me as sad. Here was a great pastor, theologian, teacher, and author. Yet Sproul was not sure that he was regenerate. (In Reformed thought, if a person fails to die in faith, he proved he was never saved in the first place.) I was reminded of R.T. Kendall’s remark that nearly to a man the Puritan divines [men who were Calvinistic and taught perseverance] died doubting whether they were saved and fearing they were going to hell. Dr. Boice died that very night, June 15th.”

“Believe” Defined

“pisteuō...’to believe,’ also ‘to be persuaded of,’ and hence, ‘to place confidence in, to trust,’ signifies, in this sense of the word, reliance upon, not mere credence. It is most frequent in the writings of the apostle John, especially the Gospel. He does not use the noun...Of the writers of the Gospels...uses of the verb...John ninety-nine.”

Colossians 2:8

⁸“See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deception, according to the tradition of men, according to the elementary principles of the world, rather than according to Christ.”

Calvinism is an Imposed Philosophy Upon Scripture

“Likewise, John Calvin...latched onto little more than a single word (predestinate) and ran with it. Then, rather than carefully looking to the whole of Scripture to verify his precepts and conclusions, he looked to the writings of Augustine to verify his thinking. The result is that, as with Catholicism, we now have ‘another gospel’ that is not solely based on Scripture but on the confused thinking and misconstrued assumptions of a mere man. With Calvin, rather than changing his views to fit Scripture, he changed the meaning of words in Scripture to fit his now distorted view of God and salvation.”

Bob Kirkland, Calvinism: None Dare Call It Heresy; Spotlight on the Life and Teachings of John Calvin (Eureka, MT: Lighthouse Trails, 2018), 97.
