

LOVE LIKE YOU'VE NEVER BEEN HURT

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. ²And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. ³And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profits me nothing. ⁴Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; ⁵does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; ⁶does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; ⁷bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. ⁸Love never fails ...

1 Corinthians 13:1-8 NKJV

1) Forgiveness is not about keeping SCORE. It's about losing COUNT.

Start thinking. Ask a question to get your group thinking.

- Why do you think some of our biggest hurts often come from family?
- Read Matthew 18:21-22. What do you think Jesus is trying to communicate here?

Start sharing. Choose a question to create openness.

- Read 1 Corinthians 13:8. Share a time you felt like love failed you. How can still you see God's love at work?
- Is anything keeping love and forgiveness from pouring out of your life? How is God tapping on you?
- Words are powerful. Who do you want to build up with words this week?

Start praying. Be bold and pray with power.

Good Father, thank You for constantly accepting us back. Thank You for forgiving us first. Holy Spirit, we need Your strength to be able to forgive those who've hurt us. Give us the courage to go with Your love into our broken relationships. We pray this in Jesus' incredible name. Amen!
