15 APRIL

MY STORY

- 1. Share an incident where you were the only one, in a group, who did not join in on something because it seemed wrong to you.

DEEPER

Read Daniel 3:12 and Isaiah 43:1-2 Faith means obeying God regardless of our fears

- 2. What fears may challenge our faith?

Read Daniel 3:17-18 and Matthew 26:39

- 3. Sometimes God does not perform the miracle you seek. What is your response when he says, "No"? Would you still be able to say, "I'll still love Him. I'll still trust Him. I'll still serve Him."
a) What can we do to become more firm in our Biblical convictions?
b) What can we do to grow our confidence in God and His plans for us?
4. When we see God do amazing things what is our response? How do we move beyond the emotions of the moment to real, life altering change?
5. How can Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego serve as role models of how to remain faithful in the face of great personal risk?

APPLICATION

Read 2 Corinthians 1:5

- 6. During the coming week, take time to examine various areas of your life. Celebrate the times where you've held fast and remained true to your convictions, and ask God to highlight those areas where you are perhaps wavering in your faith. Ask that you would feel His presence more strongly during your trials, and be encouraged by His words and promise.
