

“Two Masters”

Text: Romans 6:19-23

Scripture reading: II Peter 1:1-11

I. From law to grace – vv. 15-18 (previous study)

II. From lawless to sanctified – vv. 19-22

A) A slave’s _____ – vs. 19

-impurity= _____

-lawlessness= _____

B) A slave’s _____ – vs. 19 (II Pet. 3:18)

C) A slave’s _____ – vv. 20-22 (Phil. 3:17-19; Mark 8:38; Rom. 1:15-16)

III. From wage to gift – vs. 23

1. The wage:

2. The gift:

Conclusion:

1) The cross saves us to live in the joy of _____.

2) The cross prepares us to live forever with Christ _____.

3) The cross promises a work of grace that _____ with Christ.

“It is really the Spirit of Christ in a believer that crucifies the world and purges out sin and forms the soul to His likeness. It is impossible to be holy not being in Him, and being truly in Him, it is as impossible not to be holy.” Robert Leighton (Scottish minister; 1611-1684)

SERMON QUOTES:

II. From lawless to sanctified – vv. 19-22

Martin Lloyd-Jones on slavery to sin;

it is... “a totalitarian tyranny of the worst type; ...there is no freedom there at all.” “This is where the analogy tends to break down.”