

“Wisdom for Motherhood”

Text: Proverbs: selected verses

Scripture reading: Proverbs 1:1-19

Reading: Proverbs 1:1-19

Pr. 21:2-3 = _____

Pr. 3:32-33 = _____

I. A mother’s calling

A) Her instruction – Pr. 1:8-9; 6:20-23 (Jas. 3:17-18)

-Children’s response:

B) Her homemaking – Pr. 14:1

-Children’s response:

C) Her discipline – Pr. 29:15; 3:11-12

-Children’s response:

II. A mother's character

A) Her dignity – Pr. 31:25-26; 15:20; 20:20

-Children's response:

B) Her contentment – Pr. 23:24-25

-Children's response:

C) Her acceptance – Pr. 19:26

-Children's response:

“There is, somehow, a wonderful power about a mother's voice, when she talks to her children about Jesus and His love, which stamps itself upon the heart, and the heart is a far better place for the custody of truth than ever the brain can become.” -Charles H. Spurgeon

SERMON QUOTE:

I. A mother's calling

A) Her instruction

-Children's response

George Lawson (1749-1820),

“Young people are generally disposed to hearken to advice; but because human nature is in a corrupt state, they are generally more prone to follow bad advice than good.”