Chapter 8 --- Will We Oppose the Fiction of a Gender-Neutral Society?

1. What is the goal of the confusion regarding gender and sex?
2. What unchanging truth is proclaimed in Genesis 1:27?
3. Can feelings or external physical alterations made to the body override what a person's internal chromosomal makeup says about their identity?
4. Leftists claim they do not discriminate, but in reality, they do. How do we know this?
5. What are some ways that we as Christians should be careful and discriminating (from a biblical standpoint)?
6. On page 203 of No Reason to Hide, we read "It is better to be accused of being harsh than it is to tell lies with hushed tones of compassion, love, care, and thoughtfulness." Why is this the case?

7. What three principles does Andrew T. Walker offer for navigating pronouns and names?
8. What advice is given for employees with regard to diversity compliance?
9. What did Jesus say that suggests celibacy is not to be condemned?
10. What promise did God make to those who choose to remain single and live in holiness?
11. How should we as Christians respond to those who tell us they might be transgender or homosexual?
12. What one or two points in this chapter of No Reason to Hide did you find most helpful for providing clarity with regard to gender issues?
13. What other wisdom does scripture offer with regard to helping those who are struggling?
 - a. Galatians 6:1 ---
 - b. 1 Thessalonians 5:14 ---
14. Walt Heyer's account (pg. 210) calls attention to the fact that those who struggle with gender issues may very well be dealing with traumatic hurts from the past that haven't been addressed. According to the following passages, what comforting truths can we offer to such people?
 - a. 2 Corinthians 12:9 ---
 - b. Hebrews 4:15-16 ---
