(A Baptism Service)

Text: Romans 6:1-7

Scripture reading: Ephesians 4:1-16

Introduction:

-Matthew 28:18-20

-Acts 2:38

-Romans 6:1-7

I. Dead to sin – vv. 1-2
(Phil. 1:6)

II. One with Christ – vv. 3-4

III. Slaves no longer – vv. 5-7

“The Christian’s will has been made absolutely free. Before salvation it was not free so far as choosing between good and evil is concerned. It was enslaved to the evil nature. But now, it stands poised between the evil nature and the divine nature, with the responsibility to reject the behests of the former and obey the exhortations of the latter. To constantly say NO to the former and say YES to the latter becomes a habit, and then the victorious life has been reached.”

-Kenneth Wuest

Donald Grey Barnhouse,

“Holiness starts where justification finishes, and if holiness does not start, we have the right to suspect that justification never started either.”
