- 2) When you are hurting do you lean on people too much or do you isolate yourself? How can you find balance in this?
- 3) Have you ever found yourself bonding with people because you share a “common affliction”? What were the positives and negatives of it?
- 4) How do you connect with people who are different from you? How can we, as a church, do more for this?
- 5) Have you ever “paid a price” for following the Lord? Share if you are willing!
- 6) Consistency over time is what it takes to be someone that God can trust to move from one mission to another. What areas do you struggle to be consistent? What tips can you share with your group on how to be more consistent?
