

November 2021

All of us at Make It Clear Ministries are grateful to the Lord for you! Your prayers for us and support of our ministries in the US and around the world are greatly appreciated. It is through your faithful and generous help the ministries of Make It Clear continue growing and reach more people every day with the clarity of God’s Word. This month we feature a story of teaching staff at a crisis pregnancy center, and we dig into one of Dr. Ponz’s six “C”s. Also, would you consider joining financially with Make It Clear Ministries as 2021 comes to a close? We will share some ideas about how you can make a year-end donation to help us reach more people with the message of salvation.

Good News at a Crisis Pregnancy Center

In October, Peggy Sperling was invited to the Colorado Springs Pregnancy Center where she taught staff how to share the Good News with color. The leadership and staff at the center were all excited to have a new tool to share with clients. The Operations Director, Christine Reyes wants her staff and volunteers to have a “toolbox” full of tools to share the Good News. Peggy is praying for an opportunity to return and share the “hand gesture” method with the staff.

Christine’s husband, Raul Reyes says, “We must be willing to get involved in a person’s life to help them figure out one of the most difficult challenges a person can face – an unexpected pregnancy.” Peggy is grateful for the opportunity to help these brothers and sisters share their faith in this challenging time with hurting women and men.

If you would like to learn more about sharing the good news with color, you can send a message to TellMeMore@MakeItClear.org or purchase Good News in Color tracts at our marketplace, <https://store.makeitclear.org/shop/tracts/good-news-in-color-tract-pack-of-100/>

The Six “Cs”

On the home page of the Make It Clear website, we state that we, “present the message of salvation in a biblically correct, clear, compassionate, courageous, consistent, and cheerful way.” Beginning this month and for five upcoming months, we plan to share a little about one of these “Cs” in each newsletter.

Can you guess why we place biblically correct in the first position? Have you ever had someone knock on your door and share a message with you that was courageous, consistent, and cheerful – but completely incorrect? We start with biblically correct because that is most important. A clear but incorrect message is still incorrect.

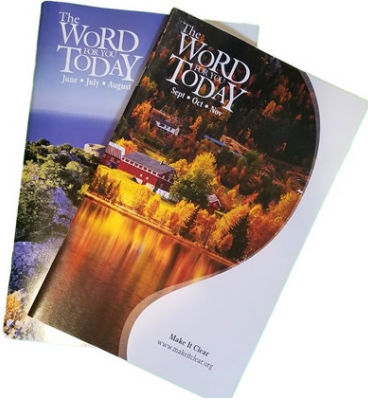

This is how we state the message of salvation, “Salvation is God’s free gift to us, but we must accept it by faith alone in Jesus Christ. We can never make up for our sin by self-improvement or good works. Only by trusting in Jesus Christ as God’s offer of forgiveness can anyone be saved from the penalty of sin. When we place our faith alone in Christ alone, we are saved. Eternal life begins the moment one receives Jesus Christ as his personal Savior by faith and is eternally secure in Christ.”

Stan and Carol Ponz

In October, Carol was able to spend a couple of weeks with her mother (Marjorie) and sister (Mary) in North Carolina. Carol enjoyed some good girl time and had some restful time, and also helped Mom eliminate some items in a garage sale. Stan says he got a lot of work done as a temporary bachelor. Unfortunately, we do not have photographic proof, but Stan did visit the rodeo while Carol was traveling. He said the highlight of the rodeo was the kid's "mutton-bustin." Proof he missed Carol – he lost 12 lbs while she was away 😊

The Word For You Today

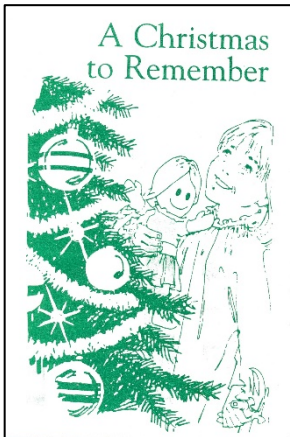

We are preparing to send out our December, January, February edition of The Word for You Today (TWFYT) devotional. The Lord is truly using it to guide Christians through Scripture to know the Lord better and to apply His Word to their lives. Now is the time to contact us at TellMeMore@MakeItClear.org to subscribe or change your TWFYT order. It will be mailed with your December newsletter at the end of November.

Year End Giving

If you are considering year-end giving, please prayerfully consider Make It Clear in your plans. Each donation of $25 would pay for a gift of our Trafficked DVD video for a church youth group or Christian school. A donation of $5,000 would pay for the filming of another episode of The Bible Says. (In the pipeline, we have episodes on Vaping, Gender Identity, and Drug Addiction, among others.) Your donation of any amount helps us continue to ensure that more people hear the gospel in more places every day and that Christians are equipped to train others to do the same. We will prayerfully use your year-end donation for our speakers, educational products, and Make It Clear events, and expand our ministry to reach the world. Thank you for your consideration to be a part of Make It Clear at this special time of year!

Christmas Shopping on the Make It Clear Marketplace

The Make it Clear Marketplace was designed to provide our ministry friends with resources that are trustworthy, helpful for sharing the Good News of God's Word, and encouraging to you. At this time of year, we want to share a few items that are representative of Christmas gifts you can find on the Marketplace.

A Christmas to Remember, written by Carol Ponz would be a great addition to the Christmas cards you send. Or the Christmas season is a great time to share this story with your server at a restaurant or any other person who provides you with a service! Give them one of these tracts as a part of the tip you share with them.

You will also find encouraging books such as Poetry and Devotions for the Soul by Sandy Bohon and inspiring music from Doug Stroup and the Peach State Quartet. We hope these resources will be helpful to you in the upcoming holiday season.
