

EP 3 THE COMMISSIONING

THE COMMISSIONING

From Preparation to Deployment

Week 3 — Prophetic Prayer & Declaration

Chris & Prudence Ministries

OPENING

Some of you have been getting ready for a very long time.

Years. Maybe decades.

You've been in the training ground. The prayer closet. The wilderness. You've read the books. Taken the courses. Done the inner work. Gotten the healing.

And somewhere along the way, you started wondering if the preparation would ever end. If "getting ready" would ever become "actually going."

You've watched others get launched while you stayed in the hangar. And the enemy has used that gap to whisper lies: Maybe you're not really called. Maybe the preparation IS the assignment.

That is a lie straight from the pit.

The preparation was never the destination. It was the runway.

Today, we're activating deployment. This is a commissioning—not a pep talk, a prophetic act.

The holding pattern is breaking. The season is turning. You are being sent.

Let's go to the Father.

PRAYER OF INVITATION

Father, we come with desperate expectation.

There are people listening who have been faithful in the waiting. They didn't quit when it got hard. They kept showing up. They kept saying yes.

And now, Lord, they are ready. Not perfect—ready. Not without fear—ready. Not with every answer figured out—ready.

Holy Spirit, speak the word of release. Break the chains of delay. Commission those who've been in the upper room, waiting for their Pentecost.

The fields are ripe. Your workers are ready. Do it now, Lord.

[Pause — let the music breathe]

BREAKING THE HOLDING PATTERN

Now we deal with the delay.

The enemy loves to keep you circling. Same mountain. Same questions. Same fears. Always preparing, never deploying. Always waiting for the "right time" that never comes.

Here's the truth: You can be so committed to preparation that you never step into your assignment.

Preparation is holy. But endless preparation is disobedience dressed up as wisdom.

In the name of Jesus, we break the spirit of delay.

We break agreement with "one more course, one more sign—then I'll go."

We break agreement with fear of failure and perfectionism that demands you have it all figured out.

Moses didn't have it figured out. Gideon didn't. Peter definitely didn't. They stepped out with trembling knees—and God met them in the middle of their obedience.

Enough circling. Enough stalling. The holding pattern breaks now.

THE SHIFT

There is a mass commissioning taking place across the Body of Christ.

For years, the emphasis has been preparation. Healing. Identity. Inner work. That was right. That was necessary.

But the preparation season is closing for many. Not because you've arrived—because God is saying: What you have is enough. Who you are is enough. Now go.

Acts 1:8: "You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses."

Notice the order. Receive power. Then go. Not figure everything out—then go.

Faith is not a map. It's a flashlight. It only shows you the next few feet. But that's enough.

The step is here. The moment is now.

THE COMMISSIONING

Now I speak commissioning over you—not as formula, but as prophetic act.

Receive this as if I were standing before you, hands on your shoulders, sending you out.

In the name of Jesus Christ, I commission you.

I commission you to step out of the waiting room and into your assignment. To stop rehearsing and start performing.

You are not too young. Not too old. Not too broken. Not too unknown.

You are chosen. Called. Anointed. And sent.

I commission you to your mountain. Business or education. Arts or government. Family or ministry. Stop asking for permission—you have it. Stop waiting for a sign—this is it.

I commission you to speak. Open your mouth. Your voice matters. The world is waiting for what you carry.

I commission you to build. Build the business, the ministry, the family, the movement. Not for your glory—for His.

I commission you to go. Go to the nations or across the street. Go where the darkness is thick and the light is needed most.

You are not a spectator. You are a sent one. Go.

[Long pause — let this land]

PRAYER FOR FAVOR AND BOLDNESS

Father, now we ask for what they'll need.

We ask for favor—supernatural favor that opens doors no human hand could open.

We ask for boldness—not arrogance, but the kind that comes from knowing You are with them.
Acts 4:29: "Enable your servants to speak your word with great boldness."

We ask for provision—resources and relationships to fulfill the assignment. Fund the vision, Lord.

We ask for endurance—stamina for the marathon, grace for the hard days.

And we ask for fruit. Real, measurable, kingdom fruit. Let them see their labor is not in vain.

CLOSING BLESSING

Now hear this.

You are no longer waiting to be sent. You have been sent. Not someday—today.

The commissioning has happened. Heaven has witnessed it. Now it's on you to move.

Isaiah 6:8: "Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send?' And I said, 'Here am I. Send me!'"

That's your response now. Not "send them." Not "send someone more qualified." Send me.

I speak blessing over you as you go:

May the Lord go before you and prepare the way. May doors open that no one can shut. May favor follow you like a cloud.

And may you look back at this moment and say, "That's when everything changed."

Because it did.

You're not getting ready anymore. You're going.

In the mighty name of Jesus—

Amen.
