

EP 23 — BREAKING THE SPIRIT OF LACK

From Scarcity to Sufficiency

Episode 23 — Prophetic Prayer & Declaration · Chris & Prudence Ministries

OPENING

Let me say something that might reframe your whole money story.

Poverty is a spirit before it is a bank balance.

We treat lack like it is only math. Not enough coming in. Too much going out. Fix the numbers and fix the problem. But some of you have fixed the numbers before and the lack came right back, because the real issue was never the spreadsheet. It was an agreement.

An agreement that says there is never enough. That says something always goes wrong. That says other people get the increase, but not you. That agreement got signed a long time ago, maybe before you were even old enough to earn a dollar, and it has been running your finances ever since.

Here is the truth. The spirit of lack does not need you broke. It just needs you braced. Living small. Rationing. Flinching every time the phone rings and it might be a bill.

That agreement ends today.

Let's go to the Father.

PROPHETIC PRAYER

1. Worship

Father, hallowed is Your name.

You are the God who owns everything. The cattle on a thousand hills. The silver and the gold. The earth and everything in it. You have never once looked at Your supply and worried.

We worship You as El Shaddai, the God of more than enough. The God who fed a nation in a wilderness with no field and no store. The God whose provision has never run dry.

Holy is Your name over our finances. Holy is Your name in the tight months. Holy is Your name, the God who does not know lack.

2. Submission

Your Kingdom come. Your will be done. On earth as it is in heaven.

Father, in heaven there is no scarcity. No lack. No fear of running out.

So we submit the poverty mindset. We hand You the bracing, the rationing, the flinching. We confess we have lived under an agreement You never authored.

Your will be done in our finances as it is in heaven. Break the agreement with lack. Realign us with Your economy, where obedience meets supply and nothing runs dry.

3. Petition

Give us this day our daily bread.

Father, today we ask for sufficiency. Not just survival. Enough, and enough to spare.

Where lack has ruled, break its grip. Where fear has shrunk our expectation, enlarge it. Open the windows of heaven over lives that have felt closed off from Your supply.

Give us daily bread and the faith to trust You for tomorrow's. Teach us to receive without guilt and steward without fear.

4. Confession and Forgiveness

Forgive us, Father.

For agreeing with lack and calling it humility. For expecting the worst and calling it realism. For letting a poverty spirit dress up as spirituality.

We confess the anxiety, the hoarding, the fear that made us grip what little we had. We renounce every agreement with scarcity in the name of Jesus.

Cleanse us. Reset our expectation.

And as You forgive us, we forgive everyone who handed us this fear. The lack we inherited. The words spoken over us about money. We release them, and we cut the cord that tied their scarcity to our future.

5. Protection

Lead us not into temptation. Deliver us from the evil one.

Father, the spirit of lack is not always natural. So we name it.

We break the spirit of poverty in the name of Jesus. We break agreement with scarcity, with fear of running out, with the lie that says there is never enough.

Deliver us from the mindset that steals before the money ever does. Guard the supply line. Let nothing choke what You are releasing.

DECLARATION

I declare over you today.

The spirit of lack is broken. The agreement is torn up. The bracing stops.

I declare you are moving from scarcity to sufficiency. From rationing to enough. From fear to faith.

I declare the windows of heaven are opening over your finances. What was closed is open. What was dry is filling.

I declare you will not live small anymore. You were not made for lack. You were made to receive and to steward and to give.

I declare Philippians 4:19 over you. My God will supply all your needs according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

Lack loses its grip. Sufficiency is your portion now.

SEALING PRAYER

Father, we seal this.

Every agreement with lack broken. Every poverty spirit evicted. Every supply line opened and protected. Sealed in the name of Jesus.

What heaven has provided, no scarcity on earth can steal.

Sufficiency over scarcity. Faith over fear. Your supply over our shortfall.

It is finished. It is sealed. It is so.

In the mighty name of Jesus.

Amen.
