

EP 21 — CHRONIC TO COMPLETE

Long-Term Conditions Breaking Episode 21 — Prophetic Prayer & Declaration · Chris & Prudence Ministries

OPENING

Some battles haven't lasted a week. They've lasted years.

The condition that came back. The diagnosis with the word chronic attached to it. The thing you've learned to live with because everyone told you that was the only option. You've adjusted. You've adapted. You've built a life around a limitation that was never supposed to be permanent.

And somewhere along the way, hope got tired. Not because you stopped believing God could. Because you got weary of being disappointed.

I want to speak to that weariness. The woman in the Gospels bled for twelve years. Twelve. She'd spent everything and gotten worse. And then one touch ended what a decade couldn't.

Long-term does not mean permanent in the Kingdom. What's been chronic can become complete. What's lasted years can break in a moment.

Today, we speak acceleration into what felt fixed.

Let's go to the Father.

PROPHETIC PRAYER

1. Worship

Father, hallowed is Your name.

You are the God who is not bound by how long it's been. Twelve years or twelve minutes, it's the same to You. You are not intimidated by chronic.

We worship You as the Healer who is never too late. The God for whom long-standing is not the same as permanent. The One who undoes in an instant what time could not fix.

Holy is Your name over the long battle. Holy is Your name in the years of waiting. Holy is Your name, the God who still heals.

2. Submission

Your Kingdom come. Your will be done. On earth as it is in heaven.

Father, in heaven there is no chronic condition. No long-term illness. No body managing what it should have overcome.

So we submit the diagnosis. We submit the timeline the doctors gave. We submit the word permanent and everything that came with it.

Your will be done in this body as it is in heaven. We don't bow to how long it's been. We bow to who You are. Your Kingdom come into the place that's been sick for years.

3. Petition

Give us this day our daily bread.

Father, today we ask for healing in the long battle.

The chronic condition, we ask You to complete it. The thing that came back, we ask You to end it for good. The body that's been managing, we ask You to make it whole.

We're not asking for a better way to cope. We're asking for the touch that ends it. Acceleration into what felt permanent. Healing where we'd stopped expecting it.

Daily bread, and daily strength to keep believing until it breaks.

4. Confession and Forgiveness

Forgive us, Father.

For letting hope get tired. For making peace with a condition before we'd exhausted heaven over it. For believing the word chronic more than we believed the word healed.

We confess the weariness. The quiet resignation. The places we stopped praying because praying hurt.

Cleanse us. Resurrect the hope.

And as You forgive us, we forgive the years this took. We forgive the disappointment that taught us to expect less. We release it, and we believe again.

5. Protection

Lead us not into temptation. Deliver us from the evil one.

Father, the temptation in a long battle is to give up. To accept it. To call surrender wisdom and stop contending.

Deliver us from the spirit of resignation. From the lie that says it's just who we are now. From the infirmity that has assigned itself to this body for years.

Every spirit of infirmity, your assignment is broken in the name of Jesus. Protect the healing. Guard the hope. Don't let weariness win.

DECLARATION

I declare over you today.

What's been chronic is becoming complete. What's lasted years is breaking in a moment.

I declare the body is responding to its Maker. Cells coming into order. Systems coming into alignment. What was managed is being healed.

I declare long-term does not mean permanent. Twelve years ended with one touch, and your years are no match for His hand.

I declare hope is being resurrected. You will believe again. You will expect again. And you will receive.

I declare by His stripes you were healed. Past tense. Already done. Now coming into your body.

The long battle is ending. Healing is accelerating.

SEALING PRAYER

Father, we seal this.

Every chronic condition addressed. Every spirit of infirmity broken. Every long battle accelerated to completion. Sealed in the name of Jesus.

What heaven has healed, no diagnosis on earth can keep.

Complete over chronic. Healing over managing. His touch over the timeline.

It is finished. It is sealed. It is so.

In the mighty name of Jesus.

Amen.
