

- 1) What does it mean to be "captivated by the Gospel" to the point of being a prisoner to it? How does this concept apply to our lives today?
- 2) Why is it crucial for us to write about our faith and share it with others? How can we practically implement this in our lives?
- 3) In what ways do you see yourself ministering to others in your daily life? How can you use your gifts and experiences to serve others and spread the Gospel?
- 4) What does it mean to preach the Gospel? How can we effectively communicate the message of Christ to others?
- 5) How do you see the church fulfilling its role in making known the manifold wisdom of God in your community? How can you contribute to the building up of the church?
- 6) How does knowing that we have boldness, access, and confidence through our faith in Christ empower us to live out our calling as stewards of the Gospel?
- 7) Have you ever experienced a situation where you were tempted to lose heart in your faith? How did you overcome it?
- 8) Reflecting on Paul's example, how can we ensure that we are not only recipients of the Gospel but also faithful stewards of it?