This Changes Everything — David Horner — John 20:19-31

Begin your study by reading John 20:19-31 as a group

Head

These questions help us understand who God is, who we are, what Scripture teaches, etc.

- What stood out to you about the message or passage this week? Is there anything you want to learn more about?
- What does this passage teach us about who Jesus is?

Heart

These questions help us align what we know in our minds with what we believe in our hearts.

- Read John 14:27. One thing that Jesus offered the disciples was a new kind of peace (John 20:19,21,26) – not based on circumstances but based on his presence and payment. Do you experience this kind of peace? Why do you think our hearts are often restless and anxious?
- Even as Thomas struggled with unbelief, Jesus was patient with him (vs. 27). How have you experienced the patience of Jesus in your life?

Hands

These questions help us get practical with what we have learned.

- Thomas missed out because he wasn't IN THE ROOM where Jesus showed up (vs. 24). How can you put yourself IN THE ROOM to experience Christ more fully in your life?
- Jesus said "As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you" (vs. 21). Where is Jesus sending you? How can you represent Him among the people and places you regularly come in contact with?

Pray

Since God speaks through His word, take time to respond through prayer.

Adoration – what has our passage taught us about God that we can praise Him for?

Confession – what has our passage revealed that we need to repent of?

Thanksgiving – what has our passage showed us that we can thank God for?

Supplication – what requests can we bring to God on behalf of ourselves and each other?
