Rachel's Place in History

1) Rachel came second to her sister, Leah in marriage, childbearing and life span. Yet we see that God elevated her position in both Old and New Testaments. How does that change your perspective on the way you see bad experiences happening in your life?

Rachel's Practical Faith

2) Rachel did not have supernatural encounters with God like Jacob, yet she made some significant decisions using her best judgement. How do you usually make decisions? What are guidelines you use, if any?

Rachel's Perseverance

3) Rachel did not let go of her desire to have children, doing whatever it took and asking God for more. What area of your life can you apply this "never give up" attitude?
