ROMANS 12:2

AND DO NOT BE CONFORMED TO THIS WORLD, BUT BE TRANSFORMED BY THE RENEWING OF YOUR MIND, THAT YOU MAY PROVE WHAT IS THAT GOOD AND ACCEPTABLE AND PERFECT WILL OF GOD.

1. How can I “renew” my mind (Rom 12:2)?

Since the Holy Spirit does the renewing and transforming (Titus 3:5; 2 Cor 3:18), what is my part in the process? (cf. to memorise Scriptures, meditate upon Scriptures etc.)

2. Why do many Christians remain “caterpillars” and do not experience transformation?

Why is it so difficult to retrain the mind?

3. What does it mean to “prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God” (Rom 12:2)?

4. Share in what area(s) of your life do you deeply desire to know God’s specific will?

Today, will you commit to obeying God’s revealed will so that He may lead you in more specific ways?

5. Share some practical ways we can encourage each other to think biblically?

End with praying for each other.
