Michael Moos | November 9th, 2025 | Ephesians 5:15-17

Introduction:

Ephesians 5:15-17 – “See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.”

I. _____:

Ephesians 5:15 – “See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,”

Proverbs 4:26-27 – “Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established. Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.”

II. _____:

Ephesians 5:15-16 – “See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.”

III. _____:

Ephesians 5:15-17 – “See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.”

Conclusion and Notes:

Take-home questions for Small Group and Family Devotions.

1. How does the distinction between knowledge and wisdom challenge the way you approach your daily decisions and spiritual growth?
2. In what specific areas of your life are you walking carelessly rather than circumspectly, and what steps can you take to become more intentional?
3. What does it practically look like to redeem the time in a culture that constantly pulls us toward temporary, meaningless distractions?
4. Many Christians struggle with knowing God's will for their lives. What was encouraging or clarifying about the sermon's explanation that God's will is revealed in His Word, not hidden?
5. How does understanding that wisdom requires living out who you are in Christ affect your daily walk and spiritual identity?
