

“Ripped Relationships”

Sermon Series: Pain Management #2

Ruth 1-4

April 12, 2026

While we may attach a high importance on friendship, we are in what’s been called a “Friendship Recession”.

God wired us for relationships.

Relationships can be wonderful, but when you think about great relationships, some positive images emerge like a ...

Relationships can be painful. Some negative images come to mind like a ...

(So, this is not really a meteorological issue but a theological one.)

You are experiencing a famine with your....

Marriage

Siblings

A Church member

- How are we relating to our ripped relationships?
- Do we feel as if we need to control?
- Do we possess a critical spirit?

What’s the right response to ripped relationships? Remember God’s graciousness.