- Brotherhood - Rom. 12:10, 20; 1 Pet. 2:13-17

IV. Conclusion:

1. Government an institution that reflects the preeminent authority of the Godhead
2. Government is created by Jesus Christ
3. Government resides in the heaven and on earth
4. Government in heaven and earth will be reconciled to God by Christ by adoption
5. Government consists of 1) boundaries (places), 2) tongues, and 3) people (families)

6. Government on earth is for every man to have liberty to faithfully obey God
7. Government is ordained to be against the wickedness, corruption, evil, and violence prior to the flood
8. Government, this power, became powers when the families were scattered into the bounds of their habitation
9. Government thus excused and accused those that were worthy of death based upon God's requirement of blood - something that they would do even when they did not like to retain God in their knowledge
