

Life Lessons

Don DeJong

God's Word is inspired and profitable for:
teaching rebuking correcting training

So I can be prepared for every good work.

The most important thought a man can think is one about God.

Who I believe God is, who I am as His child, and the reason I'm alive will determine how I live my life.

Some of the attributes of God:

Two options available to me:
God is sovereign or 2) God isn't in control.

God's revealed and hidden will.

It isn't my prayer that is sovereign, but that it is being addressed to one who is!!!

When little is known, much is imagined.
Lack of understanding is the road to denial.

Truth To Apply

1. Read Ephesians 1:1-14 and 2:1-10. On a separate piece of paper make two columns and answer these questions:

Who I Was

Who I Am

2. How do you tend to view difficult life situations? How does your view of God influence your response?

3. Read and meditate on Luke 22:39-43.

A. Why could Jesus pray like this?

B. Is your prayer life, especially in difficult situations, reflect Jesus' attitude? Why or Why not?

4. How can we pray for one another? How can we effectively pray for Pastor Dave?
