Call To Worship

Leader: As believers of Christ, each day by God's grace, we make a conscious decision to behave in a Christ-like manner. We can be most effective if we not only profess with our lips but demonstrate with our lives – letting our light shine so God is glorified. Matt 5:13-16; 1 John 2:6

Congregation: As we reflect over this past year having been brought through dangers seen and unseen -- our "soul looks back and wonder, how [we] got over." Today, let us celebrate another day of opportunity to be a living testimony of God's goodness, and "be about it." 2 Cor 5:20; Luke 2:49

ALL: If we feel an ache or pain, or are tasked with some work, let us not complain; it indicates we are standing above ground. "... In the grave there is no work. There is no thinking, no knowledge, and there is no wisdom." As the Pastor has proclaimed our new theme, "It is good to be alive in 2025." Let us serve God with purpose and intentionality. AMEN. Eccl 9:7-10; John 9:4

Scripture Lesson: Philippians 2: 25-30 (NIV)

Leader: 25 But I think it is necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, co-worker and fellow soldier, who is also your messenger, whom you sent to take care of my needs.

Congregation: 26 For he longs for all of you and is distressed because you heard he was ill. 27 Indeed he was ill, and almost died. But God had mercy on him, and not on him only but also on me, to spare me sorrow upon sorrow.

Leader: 28 Therefore I am all the more eager to send him, so that when you see him again you may be glad and I may have less anxiety.

ALL: 29 So then, welcome him in the Lord with great joy, and honor people like him, 30 because he almost died for the work of Christ. He risked his life to make up for the help you yourselves could not give me. AMEN.
