Sermon Title: "A REALLY ROUGH WEEK ."

Call To Worship

Leader: As we walk through challenging seasons, we find strength in the Word that lifts us from sorrow to joy. "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning." The Lord does not leave us in sorrow; our grief is not the outcome. He gives beauty for ashes, and in a little while, God will transform our situation. Psa 30:5; - Isaiah 61:3

Congregation: "The joy of the Lord is [our] strength." What the enemy steals cannot compare to what God sustains. Our joy is anchored in Christ, secured by His victory, and protected by His presence. No attack, no loss, and "... no weapon formed against us" shall touch our God-given joy. Neh 8:10; Isa 54:17

ALL: God's ways are higher than our ways, and His wisdom is greater than our understanding. As we mature spiritually, our trust during uncertain seasons provide opportunities for us to choose confidence over confusion and trust over fear. AMEN.
Isa 55:9

Scripture Lesson: John 16: 16-24 (NIV)

Leader: 16 Jesus went on to say, "In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me." 17 At this, some of his disciples said to one another, "What does he mean by saying, 'In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me,' and 'Because I am going to the Father'?"

Congregation: 18 They kept asking, "What does he mean by 'a little while'? We don't understand what he is saying." 19 Jesus saw that they wanted to ask him about this, so he said to them, "Are you asking one another what I meant when I said, 'In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me'?"

Leader: 20 Very truly I tell you, you will weep and mourn while the world rejoices. You will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy. 21 A woman giving birth to a child has pain because her time has come; but when her baby is born she forgets the anguish because of her joy that a child is born into the world.

Congregation: 22 So with you: Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy. 23 In that day you will no longer ask me anything. Very truly I tell you, my Father will give you whatever you ask in my name.

ALL: 24 Until now you have not asked for anything in my name. Ask and you will receive, and your joy will be complete. AMEN.
