Sermon Title: "NO KINGS."

Call To Worship

Leader: “But the Lord is the true God; he is the living God and the everlasting King.” He is the source of every good and perfect gift. When we replace His provision with human solutions and follow worldly patterns, we invite spiritual consequences. Jer 10:10; James 1:17; Ps 106:15; Jer 17:5

Congregation: Let us cling to Jesus Christ, the King of kings and Lord of lords, whose reign is eternal and righteous. Reject the ways of this world and the rule of self-serving kings—whose reign demands much, divides many, and diminishes truth. Rom 12:2; 1 John 2:15–17; Rev 19:16

ALL: Earthly rulers take what they need—tribute, control, and loyalty. But the Lord provides freely: grace, peace, and provision without burden. He is our Shepherd, ruling not from power but from mercy. In Him, we lack nothing. 1 Sam 8:11–17; Ps 23:1 AMEN.

Scripture Lesson: 1 Samuel 8: 1-9 (NIV)

Leader: 1 When Samuel grew old, he appointed his sons as Israel’s leaders. 2 The name of his firstborn was Joel and the name of his second was Abijah, and they served at Beersheba.

Congregation: 3 But his sons did not follow his ways. They turned aside after dishonest gain and accepted bribes and perverted justice. 4 So all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah.

Leader: 5 They said to him, “You are old, and your sons do not follow your ways; now appoint a king to lead us, such as all the other nations have.” 6 But when they said, “Give us a king to lead us,” this displeased Samuel; so he prayed to the Lord.

Congregation: 7 And the Lord told him: “Listen to all that the people are saying to you; it is not you they have rejected, but they have rejected me as their king. 8 As they have done from the day I brought them up out of Egypt until this day, forsaking me and serving other gods, so they are doing to you.

ALL: 9 Now listen to them; but warn them solemnly and let them know what the king who will reign over them will claim as his rights. AMEN.

On Monday, the Trump administration announced it will use emergency funds to partially fund SNAP benefits for November. However, there is no consideration to provide full coverage by tapping into other funds. This means that one in six who rely on the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance benefits, to buy groceries each month will receive a partial share. They will also have to wait days or weeks to be reloaded. Therefore, if you or anyone you know is affected by the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, please share this information.
