Start by reading over this week's passage.

Jesus is the greatest preacher and teacher that has ever lived. What do you think it would have been like to hear Him preach? Reflecting on Jesus's preaching, what aspects of His teaching style and message do you find particularly impactful or different?

The message touches on the topic of demon possession and spiritual warfare. How do you distinguish between ordinary temptation and the influence of demonic forces? How should Christians approach the reality of spiritual warfare in their lives?

We live in a chaotic and sin-filled world. Do you tend towards responding to the craziness of the world as an alarmist or as apathetic? What's the danger of both extremes?

How does Jesus's authority over the evil and the Kingdom of Darkness give us peace and hope amid the chaos?

The message emphasizes the sovereignty and wisdom of God in responding to prayers for healing. How do you reconcile the belief in God's ability to heal with the reality that healing doesn't always occur as expected? How can we maintain trust and faith in God's goodness regardless of the outcome?

Share one truth you have learned from this passage that you could pass on to someone else. It could be helping to disciple a friend, spouse, child, or even a seeking neighbor.
