

Introduction

What's the purpose of this prayer journey?

This prayer guide's goal is to help you connect with our Heavenly Father when you talk to Him. Using these Scripture verses and short prayers can help you focus on praying these Scriptures, making your prayer time more meaningful.

This week, try for at least one day to pray with someone using this guide. After this week, think about how much a blessing it is to share prayer with someone else. At first it may feel awkward, but think about this like physical training for a sport. Training the muscles to respond in a certain way at first is hard work and quite tedious. However, as you repeat the process, the motions and exercises can

Monday Morning

Isaiah 6:1–3

“In the year that King Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and the train of his robe filled the temple. Above him stood the seraphim. Each had six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. And one called to another and said: ‘Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory!’”

How can I pray?

Our Father, you are holy! You are above my biggest thoughts of You. The whole earth can't contain You.

Our Father, you are the creator of the world! The earth's beauty shows how amazing You are.

Our Father, You are the eternal King! You rule perfectly in every way.

Monday Evening

Psalms 8:1

O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens.

How can I pray?

Our Father, your name is stunning and beautiful! Your name reminds me that you are always faithful.

Our Father, your perfection is greater than the wondrous sky! Your power is shown by what You have created.

Our Father, your name is glorious! Your name reminds me that you are perfect in every way.
