

From: Matt Wynthein matthew@cornerstonefree.org
Subject:
Date: September 3, 2021 at 9:26 AM
To:

MW

-331 Corinthians 11: 17-33

Division spoils the unity of the Lord's supper and brings severe consequences.

1. Division spoils the supper
2. The supper is intrinsically unifying
3. Disunity brings severe consequences

Questions:

1. What were the Corinthians dividing over?
2. How does disunity nullify the Lord's supper?
3. Why is separateness at odds with the Lord's supper?
4. What three things does Paul mention that imply intrinsic unity in the supper.
5. How do we discern the body?
6. How is God challenging you to change?

