

Outline

1st Peter 1:13-25

The Background

- The Author
- The Audience
- The Theological Narrative

The Text

Where do we set out hope? - (1:13)

How are we to “be holy?” - (1:14-16)

Living in Fear? - (1:17-21)

Loving One Another (1:22-25)

One Thing

Where are you struggling the most right now; hope, holiness, fear, loving one another? Come up with an action plan and evaluate it with your T-group or a friend so you're ready for action when we study Philippians 2:12-18.

Discussion Questions

- 1) How can you help one another set your hope on Christ? Come up with some practical steps to accomplish this within your T-group.
- 2) In our culture, right now, how can we be set apart and display God's holiness?
- 3) If we're honest, what areas of our current schedule is futile in view of the gospel?
- 4) If we have futile areas in our lives, how can we change our purpose to glorify God in these areas?
- 5) How can we better show love to one another? Are we afraid of being stretched in this area?
- 6) Point out where you're seeing each other being stretched in love for the brethren.