

CONFESSION

My Faith Works by Love

Father, thank You for loving me first.

I do not have to earn Your love, perform for Your love, or convince You to be good to me.

Your love was established before I ever chose You.

You demonstrated Your love for me through Jesus Christ.

While I was still a sinner, Christ died for me.

Nothing can separate me from Your love.

No person, no circumstance, no fear, no failure, and no attack can separate me from the love You have for me in Christ Jesus.

I am rooted and grounded in Your love.

I know Your love personally.

I experience Your love daily.

I live with the awareness that I am deeply loved by You.

My faith works because I know You love me.

My faith is alive because it works by love.

I refuse to separate faith from Your love.

I will not toil.

I will not strive.

I will not try to force what only Your love can produce.

I trust You completely.

I respond to Your love with faith-filled obedience.

Fear has no place in me.

Perfect love casts out every fear.

God has not given me the spirit of fear, but of power, love, and a sound mind.

Fear cannot drain my faith.

Bitterness cannot drain my faith.

Condemnation cannot drain my faith.

Unforgiveness cannot drain my faith.

I choose forgiveness.

I choose love.

I choose freedom.

My heart is healthy because it is rooted in Christ.

I guard my heart with all diligence.

I protect the seed of God's Word in my life.

The enemy will not steal what God has planted in me.

I know my heavenly Father cares for me.

If He cares for the birds of the air and clothes the lilies of the field, He will surely take care of me.

I refuse to worry.

I refuse to live in anxiety.

My Father knows exactly what I need.

I seek first His Kingdom.

He is working in me.

The power that works in me is His life and His love.

He is able to do exceedingly, abundantly above all I can ask, think, hope, or dream.

I come boldly to the throne of grace because I know I am loved.

I ask confidently.

I pray confidently.

I believe confidently.

When God speaks to me, His love comes with His Word.

When He speaks, faith comes.

When He speaks, direction comes.

When He speaks, I respond.

I hear His voice because I belong to Him.

I am not moved by circumstances.

I am rooted.

I am established.

I am strengthened.

Love is shaping me into the image of Christ.

I walk in the covenant of love.

I love because He first loved me.

Today I choose to live from His love, walk by faith, and trust Him completely.

My faith works by love.

In Jesus' name, Amen.
