Artist Statement

This year's artwork series visualizes the thematic chapters of the church calendar using simple geometric illustrations to highlight the interconnected nature of the chapters. Each chapter is a standalone piece of artwork, but together they will form a collective mosaic that symbolizes the holistic story of the church calendar.

HEBREWS: FIXING OUR EYES ON JESUS

Let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith.

Hebrews 12:1-2 (NIV)

I am bound for the Promised Land.

Samuel Stennett

My dad used to be a marathon runner. When he was in his late 50's, he wanted to run in the Boston Marathon. To qualify for Boston, he had to run another marathon in under a set amount of time.

He knew this was going to be a challenge to him. So he trained for the better part of a year. He also invited me to come and run with him for the key part of one of the qualifying races. The idea was that as I ran alongside of him, I could keep him on track and encourage him so he could make it to the finish line in time.

The book of Hebrews tells us that the Christian life is like a marathon race. To be sure, it is glorious and filled with joy. But it is also long and—at times—grueling.

And, the book of Hebrews is focused on answering one question:

How can we finish the race as Christians?

Herein lies the brilliance of Hebrews...it doesn't give us a strategy for finishing the Christian life. Instead, Hebrews gives us Jesus.

In this book, we are given numerous sketches of Jesus—highlighting his majesty, glory, and superiority. And, we are told in chapter 12 to “fix our eyes” on him. This means to look away from anything and everything else so that we might be able to focus our attention on Jesus—seeing him clearly and distinctly.

This, and only this, is how we finish the race.

Let us worship.

REFLECTION QUOTES

It is easy to think that the Church has a lot of different objects—education, building, missions, holding services...the Church exists for nothing else but to draw men into Christ, to make them little Christs. If they are not doing that, all the cathedrals, clergy, missions, sermons, even the Bible itself, are simply a waste of time.

Our worship begins each week with a call to worship. We are gathered here today because God, our Creator, desires to have a relationship with us. Whether we realize it or not, he is the one calling us to himself—today and every day.

CALL TO WORSHIP

(based on Psalm 105:1-4,7)

Give thanks to the Lord;
call on His name;
make His deeds known to all the people!

For He is the Lord, our God,
faithful to a thousand generations!

Sing His praises;
tell of His wonderful works,
and glory in His holy name!
Let those who seek the Lord rejoice!

For He is the Lord, our God,
faithful to a thousand generations!

Search for God, and for His strength.
Never stop looking for Him.

For He is the Lord, our God,
faithful to a thousand generations!

LECTIO SACRA

Jeremiah 20:7-13

O Lord, you have deceived me,
 and I was deceived;
 you are stronger than I,
 and you have prevailed.
 I have become a laughingstock all the day;
 everyone mocks me.
 For whenever I speak, I cry out,
 I shout, "Violence and destruction!"
 For the word of the Lord has become for me a reproach and derision all day long.

“Lectio Sacra” means “sacred reading.” It has been the practice of the church for thousands of years to have portions of the bible read during worship services. The assumption behind this practice is that we are people who need to be shaped by all of God’s word.

If I say, “I will not mention him, or speak any more in his name,”
there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones,
and I am weary with holding it in,
and I cannot.

For I hear many whispering.
Terror is on every side!
“Denounce him! Let us denounce him!”
say all my close friends, watching for my fall.

“Perhaps he will be deceived;
then we can overcome him
and take our revenge on him.”

But the Lord is with me as a dread warrior;
therefore my persecutors will stumble;
they will not overcome me.

They will be greatly shamed,
for they will not succeed.

Their eternal dishonor will never be forgotten.

O Lord of hosts, who tests the righteous, who sees the heart and the mind,
let me see your vengeance upon them,
for to you have I committed my cause.

Sing to the Lord;
praise the Lord!

For he has delivered the life of the needy from the hand of evildoers.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

INTERLUDE

CONFESSION OF SIN

Merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart and mind and strength.
We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

In your mercy forgive what we have been,
help us amend what we are,
and direct what we shall be,
so that we may delight in your will
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name.

Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

(You are invited to confess your sins silently)

Confession of sin happens within the context of relationship, both with God and each other. We confess together, in community, before a gracious God who has given us himself. Confession both acknowledges our need for mercy and celebrates its abundance in Christ.

RECEIVING OF GRACE

Psalm 147:2-3, 5

The Lord builds up Jerusalem;
he gathers the outcasts of Israel.
He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.

Great is our Lord, and abundant in power;
his understanding is beyond measure.

Your sins are forgiven.

Thanks be to God!

May the peace of Christ be with you!

And also with you!

William Marion Runyan

PRAYING THE PSALMS

Psalm 36

I have a message from God in my heart concerning the sinfulness of the wicked:

There is no fear of God
before their eyes.

In their own eyes they flatter themselves too much to detect or hate their sin.

The words of their mouths are wicked and deceitful;
they fail to act wisely or do good.

Even on their beds they plot evil;
they commit themselves to a sinful course and do not reject what is wrong.

Your love, Lord, reaches to the heavens,
your faithfulness to the skies.

Your righteousness is like the highest mountains,
your justice like the great deep.

You, Lord, preserve both people and animals.
How priceless is your unfailing love, O God!

People take refuge in the shadow of your wings.
They feast on the abundance of your house;
you give them drink from your river of delights.
For with you is the fountain of life;
in your light we see light.

Continue your love to those who know you,
your righteousness to the upright in heart.

May the foot of the proud not come against me,
nor the hand of the wicked drive me away.
See how the evildoers lie fallen—thrown down, not able to rise!

Praying through the Psalms each week teaches us how to pray, using the prayer book of ancient Israel. As we pray, there will be pauses for reflection.

Come Thou Fount Of Every Blessing

Come, Thou Fount of every blessing,
tune my heart to sing Thy grace Streams of mercy, never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above Praise the mount, I'm fixed upon it, mount of God's unchanging love

*Robert Robinson, 1758
John Wyeth, 1813*

Here I raise my Ebenezer, hither by Thy help I'm come
And I hope by Thy good pleasure, safely to arrive at home
Jesus sought me when a stranger, wandering from the fold of God
He to rescue me from danger, interposed His precious blood

Oh to grace how great a debtor, daily I'm constrained to be Let Thy goodness, like a fetter;
bind my wandering heart to Thee Prone to wander, Lord I feel it, prone to leave the God I love Here's my heart, oh take and seal it, seal it for Thy courts above

Prayer for ThoseSearching for the Truth

Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth, and the life. Grant that I might be undaunted by the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open to me the reality of who you are. Give me an understanding of you that is coherent, convincing, and that leads to the life that you promise. Amen.

Prayer for Those*Struggling with Sin

Lord Jesus, grant that I may see in you the fulfillment of all my need and may turn from every false satisfaction to feed on you, the true and living bread. Enable me to lay aside the sin that clings so closely, and run with perseverance the race set before me, looking to you, the author and perfecter of my faith. Amen.

Prayer of Belief

Lord Jesus, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment on the cross, and offering forgiveness and new life. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as Savior and Lord. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

As recipients of God's grace, we gladly receive peace from him. In response to his grace, we also extend that grace to one another. Traditionally, Christians have greeted one another during this time in the service with the phrase, "May the peace of Christ be with you" and receive back the greeting "And also with you."

GOSPEL LESSON

Aligning Ourselves with our Great High Priest

Hebrews 10:19-25

Rev. John Haralson

Sermons can be streamed and downloaded at graceseattle.org/resources.

SERMON TEXT

Hebrews 10:19-25

[19] Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, [20] by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, [21] and since we have a great priest over the house of God, [22] let us draw near to God with a sincere heart and with the full assurance that faith brings, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. [23] Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. [24] And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, [25] not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever. Amen.

BENEDICTION

Hebrews 12:1-3

Therefore,

since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses,
 let us also lay aside every weight,
 and sin which clings so closely,
 and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

Amen.

SENDING

Let us go forth and serve the world as those who love our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Thanks be to God!

UPDATES

Sunday Worship & Other Church Gatherings. We will be worshipping by live stream every Sunday at 10am on our YouTube page (search for “Grace Church Seattle” on YouTube).

All in-person meetings have been suspended. Many Community Groups, men's groups, and women's Bible studies have transitioned to all on-line meetings. In addition, our Youth Community Group (YCG) has begun to meet on Sundays via Zoom. We are working to put together more online gatherings each week. To find out more, please contact our leadership team and check our website for updates.

Pastoral Care. Please contact us if you have needs or if you have resources you would like to offer our community. We can be reached here (pastoralcare@graceseattle.org).

Loving God. During this season, in addition to continuing to maintain your practice of Sunday worship—though in the new online format—we are encouraging you to do two things:

Daily Prayer & Scripture Reading. We have three great resources to help you pray and read Scripture more regularly. Go to the Daily Prayer section of our website.

Midweek Liturgy. We will be creating and sending out a midweek liturgy every Tuesday that people can use individually or in a small gathering. This liturgy will have prayers, Scripture readings, and songs. Go to the Midweek Liturgy section of our website.

Loving Neighbor. Loving God is always bound up with loving our neighbors. Here are some concrete things you can do:

Watch a “Conversation on Race & the Church”

Read Pastor John’s letter to the congregation on racial justice

Hygiene & Social Distancing. Following the coronavirus health and safety protocols is a critical way that we exhibit a real love of neighbor by helping reduce the possibility of the spread of the virus.

Deacons Fund. Our Deacons Fund exists to help those in our congregation and community who are facing unexpected financial need. This is an incredible way to lovingly and sacrificially support those whose lives have been impacted by current events.

- To give to our Deacons fund, go to the Giving section of our website.
- To request financial assistance during this time, please get in touch with our deacons (deacons@graceseattle.org).

Helping the hurting. We are taking steps to actively care for and provide some relief to needs within our congregation already brought to our attention. In addition, we have begun forming partnerships with local businesses and provide care for those on the margins who have been adversely affected by recent events. Dan & Renée Huie are also establishing a non-perishable food and household supply drop-off location at the Layne. We are partnering with local organizations to get this food delivered to seniors and homeless youth in our city. If you would like more information, want to volunteer, or have ideas for future partnerships, please contact Pastor Jason.

Giving to Grace. As we mentioned before, now is a wonderful opportunity to give to the Deacons Fund at the church. At the same time, it is important to point out that our expenses haven’t significantly changed, and we still need folks to give generously and graciously to our General Fund. For more information, please visit the Giving section of our website.

ANNOUNCEMENTS & UPCOMING EVENTS

Because of the Coronavirus, and the ever changing nature of our day to day lives at this present time, please contact the host of these events to see whether or not they are currently being continued. Please note that most groups have been updated and are now running through video conferencing.

CONNECT

Welcoming our Newest Communicants to the Lord's Supper

We are thrilled to have 12 new communicants joining the Lord's Supper during our June and July outdoor Communion services! YCG's Phases of Art series: Exploring Different Medias While Supporting our Local Artists!

This is a YCG-led opportunity to learn from and connect with artists in our community during the pandemic. There will be four different artist-led Zoom classes for anyone to participate in. Everyone is welcome to join any or all of the classes:

June 28th--Dancing with Syreeta Bernal;

July 12th--Painting with Alyce Wolfe;

July 26th--Cooking with Tarik Abdullah;

August 9th--Puppet Making with Marisol Rosa-Shapiro.

Registration is required for all classes. Register at bit.ly/

phases_of_art. Deadline to register for the June 28th class is June 25th. All classes will be free, but donations to the artists are greatly appreciated! For more information, feel free to email Phoebe Williams at phoeberit8@gmail.com.

Summer Silent Retreat 1/2 day (9AM to noon) August 29

Half-Day Retreats are held at *The Layne: 1252 16th Ave E, Seattle, WA 98112. We pray this will be an opportunity to be together in-person - parking is generous. (We will keep you posted if we must hold the retreat via Zoom.) In these stressful times, we invite you to rest in Him.

What to expect: Though the time begins and ends in community, the 1/2 Day Retreat is personal time spent with God. You will be offered scriptures and readings to facilitate your time if you choose to use them. In addition to quiet spaces for reflection at The Layne, there are multiple places to walk to as you enjoy God in nature.

(*The Layne is a home on Capitol Hill open to those who desire a quiet, restful, and safe place to explore God in solitude or community.) For more information email: shelly@graceseattle.org. To register, please email Sean Hill at sean@graceseattle.org.

Moms In Prayer Group

Moms In Prayer is an international group with the sole purpose of praying for our kids while they attend school. To find out more information about this organization go to momsinprayer.org. Open to all moms and all school structures including homeschool. We meet via Zoom at 2 PM on Wednesdays. We will start a new group for the summer months. Please contact Heidi Slater at hydijo@gmail.com if you would like to join us or learn more.

Women's Bible study Wednesday Evenings (once a month): 7pm-8:30pm.

July 15, and August 12. Ecclesiastes Study Book by She Reads Truth. This 3-week study will meet via zoom. To receive a zoom invitation or if you have any questions, please contact Andrea Frankenfeld, andrea@andreafrankenfeld.com, or Jennifer Spaight, jennifermarielane@hotmail.com. If you need financial help in purchasing this book, please contact Linn Haralson, linn@graceseattle.org.

Recovery From Sexual Compulsivity Discussion Group

Time: Wednesdays at 7:00pm

Location: Currently meeting through Zoom. This 1-hour, men-only meeting follows a 12-step format and is open to men of any or no faith. It is anonymous (first-name basis only) and focuses on sharing everyone's experience in an open and safe environment. (When arriving at the Layne, use the Galer St entrance where a set of stairs will lead you through the gate to the back entrance of the main house.) For more information contact Clint Morse (206-915-1669) or Justin Hawkins (314-614-7736.)

Betrayal Trauma Support Group

We meet the fourth Wednesday of each month from 6:30-8:00pm. The gathering provides a safe, supportive place to experience understanding and kindness in a confidential setting. This group is for women whose spouses are involved in sexual compulsivity. If you wish to attend or have any questions, please contact Shelly Morse at (206) 2273043 or shelly@graceseattle.org. Meetings are currently happening through Zoom.

Support for LGBT Individuals and Families, By: Soul Care Seattle @ The Layne

Please contact dan@soulcareseattle.com or renee@soulcareseattle.com for details (some groups are now meeting through video conferencing.)

Sexual Minority Group seeks to provide community for people in the church who experience non-heterosexual attractions or conflict with their gender. This ministry offers a safe place for people to ask questions, be understood, and do life together, within the context of a theologically conservative community, while seeking to understand who we are in relationship with God.

Meeting Time: Second and Fourth Tuesday of each month, 7:00PM-9:00PM.

Parents and Families Group provides support for family members of those who identify as LGBTQ, experience same-sex attraction, or experience gender dysphoria. A loved one's journey in this area can be very painful and confusing for those who care deeply for the individual. This group offers support and encouragement as family members learn how to love well and grieve well the pain that they and their loved one may feel over this issue.

Meeting Time: Third Wednesday of each month starting in September at 7:00PM-9:00PM

Book Club

Love reading? We read all kinds of literature including best sellers, classics, non-fiction, and young adult fiction. Join us once or every month. We continue to meet online through Zoom. Contact tamarack@graceseattle.org for meeting link and details.

Upcoming schedule:

July - The Rosie Project by Graeme Simsion

August - American Spy by Lauren Wilkinson

Grief and Loss Support Group, Third Sunday of Each Month

This ministry provides a time and space to share our grief and loss, so that we can be consoled in knowing that we are not alone in our suffering. If you are experiencing grief or loss over the death of a loved one, infertility, the loss of health, difficult family dynamics, the loss of a job, or another loss, join us. There is no grief or loss that is too big or too small. The participants simply listen to and pray for each person that shares. A moderator describes the group guidelines at the start of each meeting. We continue to meet the 3rd Sunday of the month at 12:15 through Zoom. If you have questions or to get the meeting link, please contact Lisa Behringer at cozycottage@mac.com.

Community Group Season

Community Groups are a wonderful context for community here at Grace and for formation as a Christian, seeker or skeptic. Currently, most of our groups are at capacity, but there are a couple new groups forming, (in addition to a few open spots across the city). We also appreciate prayer for new hosts and leaders as our congregation continues to grow numerically and relationally. With some structures still finding definition we are not publishing new groups on the website, so if you are still looking to join a CG, please reach out to cg@graceseattle.org.

GraceLifeSeattle Listserv

The GraceLifeSeattle Listserv is an email group designed to foster spontaneous generosity and hospitality among anyone and everyone who regularly attends Grace. The Listserv will allow anyone who signs up to send out an email to the larger group. It is designed to be used to let others know about a party you'd like to invite others to join, a game night you'd like to host, a request to borrow something, a post to give goods away, a need you'd like to ask for help from the larger group, etc. To join, email Sean.

Start our own Video Conferencing Group?

If you would like to start a video conferencing prayer group, Bible study, support group or social club within our church community, please email Linn Haralson, or 206-718-3982. She can help assist in getting your message out to other members of our community and/or help you set up a video formatting tool.

Men's Groups

There are a number of men's groups that meet regularly for Bible study, prayer, and relationship building. Many are now meeting through video conferencing. If you are interested, please contact Eric DeMoney at mensgroups@graceseattle.org.

New Service Opportunity with YCG & Serving the City

YCG is launching a new service opportunity to support local artists in the Seattle area this Summer. For the next 8 weeks, our Youth Community Group will work synergistically with four local artists to create a small and thoughtful way for our congregation to support their craft. Our Sunday meetings will be aimed at prayerfully setting up a way to enjoy and support our four friends. Please encourage your teens to participate and join us this Sunday! Questions? Email Foxy Davison, foxyandjason@q.com

Meals Ministry

We serve Grace community members with food delivery in case of short-term needs, such as injuries, illnesses, and new children. Volunteers are added to an email list and asked to serve as they are able when needs arise. Currently additional volunteers are needed to help serve the community in this practical way. Weekly Serving Opportunity with First AME Church

F.A.M.E. Church, (First African Methodist Episcopal), on 14th and Pine is holding a weekly food giveaway on Friday's at 12pm. Pastor Carey Anderson and Sister Denise Williams have reached out to us for two reasons: (1) If anyone needs food and non-perishables to please come and take advantage of their weekly distribution, (2) F.A.M.E. could use no more than 2 volunteers from Grace every Friday to help with the giveaway. There is no driving or transporting food involved, but simply distributing food from their food pantry, (within social distancing protocols). This is a wonderful way to strengthen our relationship with F.A.M.E. and serve our city during this critical time. If you would like more details and are interested in volunteering, please email Pastor Jason at jason@graceseattle.org.

Lifelong

Grace Seattle delivers pre-made meals once a week to individuals living with or at risk of HIV/AIDS and/or other chronic diseases. If you would like more information or would like to be part of the delivery team, email Paige Lively at paigelively@gmail.com.

Deacons Fund

Our Deacons Fund exists to help those in our congregation and community who are facing unexpected financial need. This is an incredible way to lovingly and sacrificially support those whose lives have been impacted by difficult life circumstances. To give to our Deacons fund, go to the Giving section of our website. To request financial assistance during this time, please get in touch with our deacons (deacons@graceseattle.org).

Food and Household Supply Drop Off

Dan & Renée Huie are also establishing a non-perishable food and household supply drop-off location at the Layne, 1252 16th Ave E, Seattle, WA 98112. We are partnering with local organizations to get this food delivered to seniors and shut-ins in the community. You can contact Dan & Renée directly for more information.

Have an Idea for Serving?

Pray for how we can continue to partner with the infrastructure of our city and individual neighborhoods. If you have stories of how you are doing this now, or ideas for the future, please contact Pastor Jason, jason@graceseattle.org.
