Artist Statement

This year's artwork series visualizes the thematic chapters of the church calendar using simple geometric illustrations to highlight the interconnected nature of the chapters. Each chapter is a standalone piece of artwork, but together they will form a collective mosaic that symbolizes the holistic story of the church calendar.

HEBREWS: FIXING OUR EYES ON JESUS

Let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith.

Hebrews 12:1-2 (NIV)

I am bound for the Promised Land.

Samuel Stennett

My dad used to be a marathon runner. When he was in his late 50's, he wanted to run in the Boston Marathon. To qualify for Boston, he had to run another marathon in under a set amount of time.

He knew this was going to be a challenge to him. So he trained for the better part of a year. He also invited me to come and run with him for the key part of one of the qualifying races. The idea was that as I ran alongside of him, I could keep him on track and encourage him so he could make it to the finish line in time.

The book of Hebrews tells us that the Christian life is like a marathon race. To be sure, it is glorious and filled with joy. But it is also long and—at times—grueling.

And, the book of Hebrews is focused on answering one question:

How can we finish the race as Christians?

Herein lies the brilliance of Hebrews...it doesn't give us a strategy for finishing the Christian life. Instead, Hebrews gives us Jesus.

In this book, we are given numerous sketches of Jesus—highlighting his majesty, glory, and superiority. And, we are told in chapter 12 to “fix our eyes” on him. This means to look away from anything and everything else so that we might be able to focus our attention on Jesus—seeing him clearly and distinctly.

This, and only this, is how we finish the race.

Let us worship.

Text in bold is read together by the entire congregation. Plain text is read by one of the worship service leaders

Our worship begins each week with a call to worship. We are gathered here today because God, our Creator, desires to have a relationship with us. Whether we realize it or not, he is the one calling us to himself—today and every day.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 118:14-16, 22-25

The Lord is my strength and my song;
he has become my salvation.

Glad songs of salvation
are in the tents of the righteous:

"The right hand of the Lord does valiantly,
the right hand of the Lord exalts,
the right hand of the Lord does valiantly!"

The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

This is the Lord's doing;
it is marvelous in our eyes.
This is the day that the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Save us, we pray, O Lord!
O Lord, we pray, give us success!

LECTIO SACRA

Philippians 3:1-16

“Lectio Sacra” means “sacred reading.” It has been the practice of the church for thousands of years to have portions of the bible read during worship services. The assumption behind this practice is that we are people who need to be shaped by all of God’s word.

Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you is no trouble to me and is safe for you.

Look out for the dogs, look out for the evildoers, look out for those who mutilate the flesh. For we are the circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh— though I myself have reason for confidence in the flesh also. If anyone else thinks he has reason for confidence in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless. But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. Let those of us who are mature think this way, and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal that also to you. Only let us hold true to what we have attained.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Adapted from Isaiah 30:15

The LORD has said to his people,

“In returning and rest you shall be saved;
in quietness and in trust shall be your strength.”

But we have chosen our own way,

We have sought to save ourselves

In our efforts to manage our schedules

In our attempts to win every argument

In our retreat from the family of God

We take the freedoms and responsibilities You have given

And trust for in them for salvation rather than the Savior.

Have mercy on us, O God!

Confession of sin happens within the context of relationship, both with God and each other. We confess together, in community, before a gracious God who has given us himself. Confession both acknowledges our need for mercy and celebrates its abundance in Christ.

RECEIVING OF GRACE

Isaiah 30:18-21

Sisters and Brothers in Christ, believe these words of Promise:

Therefore the Lord waits to be gracious to you,
and therefore he exalts himself to show mercy to you.

For the Lord is a God of justice;
blessed are all those who wait for him.

For a people shall dwell in Zion, in Jerusalem;

You shall weep no more.

He will surely be gracious to you

At the sound of your cry.

As soon as he hears it, he answers you.

And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity

And the water of affliction,

Yet your Teacher will not hide himself anymore,

But your eyes shall see your Teacher.

And our ears shall hear a word behind us, saying,

"This is the way, walk in it,"

When you turn to the right

Or when you turn to the left.

In Christ, we are forgiven,

In Christ, we are given His Spirit to guide us unto righteousness.

This is the Gospel!

Thanks Be to God!

Praying through the Psalms each week teaches us how to pray, using the prayer book of ancient Israel. As we pray, there will be pauses for reflection.

PRAYING THE PSALMS

Psalm 94

O Lord, God of vengeance,
O God of vengeance, shine forth!
Rise up, O judge of the earth;
repay to the proud what they deserve!

O Lord, how long shall the wicked,
how long shall the wicked exult?

They pour out their arrogant words;
all the evildoers boast.
They crush your people, O Lord,
and afflict your heritage.
They kill the widow and the sojourner,
and murder the fatherless;
and they say, "The Lord does not see;
the God of Jacob does not perceive."

Understand, O dullest of the people!
Fools, when will you be wise?

He who planted the ear, does he not hear?
He who formed the eye, does he not see?
He who disciplines the nations, does he not rebuke?

He who teaches man knowledge—
the Lord—knows the thoughts of man,
that they are but a breath.

Blessed is the man whom you discipline, O Lord,
and whom you teach out of your law,
to give him rest from days of trouble,
until a pit is dug for the wicked.

For the Lord will not forsake his people;
he will not abandon his heritage;
for justice will return to the righteous,
and all the upright in heart will follow it.

Who rises up for me against the wicked?

Who stands up for me against evildoers?

If the Lord had not been my help, my soul would soon have lived in the land of silence.

When I thought, "My foot slips," your steadfast love, O Lord, held me up.

When the cares of my heart are many,
your consolations cheer my soul.

Can wicked rulers be allied with you,
those who frame injustice by statute?

They band together against the life of the righteous and condemn the innocent to death.

But the Lord has become my stronghold,
and my God the rock of my refuge.
He will bring back on them their iniquity and wipe them out for their wickedness;
the Lord our God will wipe them out.

Prayer for Those*Searching for the Truth

Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth, and the life. Grant that I might be undaunted by the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open to me the reality of who you are. Give me an understanding of you that is coherent, convincing, and that leads to the life that you promise. Amen.

Prayer for Those*Struggling with Sin

Lord Jesus, grant that I may see in you the fulfillment of all my need and may turn from every false satisfaction to feed on you, the true and living bread. Enable me to lay aside the sin that clings so closely, and run with perseverance the race set before me, looking to you, the author and perfecter of my faith. Amen.

Prayer of Belief

Lord Jesus, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment on the cross, and offering forgiveness and new life. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as Savior and Lord. Amen.

PASSING THE PEACE

As recipients of God's grace, we gladly receive peace from him. In response to his grace, we also extend that grace to one another. Traditionally, Christians have greeted one another during this time in the service with the phrase, "May the peace of Christ be with you" and receive back the greeting "And also with you."

GOSPEL LESSONTrue PerfectionHebrews 10:11-18Rev. Jason Davison

Sermons can be streamed and downloaded at graceseattle.org/resources.

SERMON TEXT*Hebrews 10:11-18

[11] And every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. [12] But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, [13] waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. [14] For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified.

[15] And the Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after saying,

[16] "This is the covenant that I will make with them
after those days, declares the Lord:
I will put my laws on their hearts,
and write them on their minds,"

[17] then he adds,

"I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more."

[18] Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

UPDATES

Sunday Worship & Other Church Gatherings. We will be worshipping by live stream every Sunday at 10am on our YouTube page (search for “Grace Church Seattle” on YouTube).

All in-person meetings have been suspended. Many Community Groups, men's groups, and women's Bible studies have transitioned to all on-line meetings. In addition, our Youth Community Group (YCG) has begun to meet on Sundays via Zoom. We are working to put together more online gatherings each week. To find out more, please contact our leadership team and check our website for updates.

Pastoral Care. Please contact us if you have needs or if you have resources you would like to offer our community. We can be reached here (pastoralcare@graceseattle.org).

Loving God. During this season, in addition to continuing to maintain your practice of Sunday worship—though in the new online format—we are encouraging you to do two things:

Daily Prayer & Scripture Reading. We have three great resources to help you pray and read Scripture more regularly. Go to the Daily Prayer section of our website.

Midweek Liturgy. We will be creating and sending out a midweek liturgy every Tuesday that people can use individually or in a small gathering. This liturgy will have prayers, Scripture readings, and songs. Go to the Midweek Liturgy section of our website.

Loving Neighbor. Loving God is always bound up with loving our neighbors. Here are some concrete things you can do:

Read Pastor John's letter to the congregation on racial justice

Hygiene & Social Distancing. Following the coronavirus health and safety protocols is a critical way that we exhibit a real love of neighbor by helping reduce the possibility of the spread of the virus.

Deacons Fund. Our Deacons Fund exists to help those in our congregation and community who are facing unexpected financial need. This is an incredible way to lovingly and sacrificially support those whose lives have been impacted by current events.

- To give to our Deacons fund, go to the Giving section of our website.
- To request financial assistance during this time, please get in touch with our deacons (deacons@graceseattle.org).

Helping the hurting. We are taking steps to actively care for and provide some relief to needs within our congregation already brought to our attention. In addition, we have begun forming partnerships with local businesses and provide care for those on the margins who have been adversely affected by recent events. Dan & Renée Huie are also establishing a non-perishable food and household supply drop-off location at the Layne. We are partnering with local organizations to get this food delivered to seniors and homeless youth in our city. If you would like more information, want to volunteer, or have ideas for future partnerships, please contact Pastor Jason.

Giving to Grace. As we mentioned before, now is a wonderful opportunity to give to the Deacons Fund at the church. At the same time, it is important to point out that our expenses haven't significantly changed, and we still need folks to give generously and graciously to our General Fund. For more information, please visit the Giving section of our website.

ANNOUNCEMENTS & UPCOMING EVENTS

Because of the Coronavirus, and the ever changing nature of our day to day lives at this present time, please contact the host of these events to see whether or not they are currently being continued. Please note that most groups have been updated and are now running through video conferencing.

If you are experiencing grief or loss over the death of a loved one, infertility, the loss of health, difficult family dynamics, the loss of a job, or another loss, join us. There is no grief or loss that is too big or too small. The participants simply listen to and pray for each person that shares. ## Community Group Season

Community Groups are a wonderful context for community here at Grace and for formation as a Christian, seeker or skeptic. Currently, most of our groups are at capacity, but there are a couple new groups forming, (in addition to a few open spots across the city). We also appreciate prayer for new hosts and leaders as our congregation continues to grow numerically and relationally. With some structures still finding definition we are not publishing new groups on the website, so if you are still looking to join a CG, please reach out to cg@graceseattle.org.

GraceLifeSeattle Listserv

The GraceLifeSeattle Listserv is an email group designed to foster spontaneous generosity and hospitality among anyone and everyone who regularly attends Grace. The Listserv will allow anyone who signs up to send out an email to the larger group. It is designed to be used to let others know about a party you'd like to invite others to join, a game night you'd like to host, a request to borrow something, a post to give goods away, a need you'd like to ask for help from the larger group, etc. To join, [email Sean](mailto:email Sean).

SERVE

Grace's Serving the City COVID-19 Partners Announced

Please see our list of partners and consider supporting them with your time and resources.

New Service Opportunity with YCG & Serving the City

YCG is launching a new service opportunity to support local artists in the Seattle area this Summer. For the next 8 weeks, our Youth Community Group will work synergistically with four local artists to create a small and thoughtful way for our congregation to support their craft. Our Sunday meetings will be aimed at prayerfully setting up a way to enjoy and support our four friends. Please encourage your teens to participate and join us this Sunday! Questions? Email Foxy Davison, foxyandjason@q.com

Meals Ministry

We serve Grace community members with food delivery in case of short-term needs, such as injuries, illnesses, and new children. Volunteers are added to an email list and asked to serve as they are able when needs arise. Currently additional volunteers are needed to help serve the community in this practical way. Contact: Rebecca Iffland rebecca@graceseattle.org

Weekly Serving Opportunity with First AME Church

F.A.M.E. Church, (First African Methodist Episcopal), on 14th and Pine is holding a weekly food giveaway on Friday's at 12pm. Pastor Carey Anderson and Sister Denise Williams have reached out to us for two reasons: (1) If anyone needs food and non-perishables to please come and take advantage of their weekly distribution, (2) F.A.M.E. could use no more than 2 volunteers from Grace every Friday to help with the giveaway. There is no driving or transporting food involved, but simply distributing food from their food pantry, (within social distancing protocols). This is a wonderful way to strengthen our relationship with F.A.M.E. and serve our city during this critical time. If you would like more details and are interested in volunteering, please email Pastor Jason at jason@graceseattle.org.

Lifelong

Grace Seattle delivers pre-made meals once a week to individuals living with or at risk of HIV/AIDS and/or other chronic diseases. If you would like more information or would like to be part of the delivery team, email Paige Lively at paigelively@gmail.com.

Deacons Fund

Our Deacons Fund exists to help those in our congregation and community who are facing unexpected financial need. This is an incredible way to lovingly and sacrificially support those whose lives have been impacted by difficult life circumstances. To give to our Deacons fund, go to the Giving section of our website. To request financial assistance during this time, please get in touch with our deacons (deacons@graceseattle.org).

Food and Household Supply Drop Off

Dan & Renée Huie are also establishing a non-perishable food and household supply drop-off location at the Layne, 1252 16th Ave E, Seattle, WA 98112. We are partnering with local organizations to get this food delivered to seniors and shut-ins in the community. You can contact Dan & Renée directly for more information.

Have an Idea for Serving?

Pray for how we can continue to partner with the infrastructure of our city and individual neighborhoods. If you have stories of how you are doing this now, or ideas for the future, please contact Pastor Jason, jason@graceseattle.org.
