

Her Life

Today we pause to pay tribute to the memories of one who endeared herself in the hearts of her family and friends. She was greatly admired and dearly loved.

Anita, who is the eldest child of Carl and Frederica (McFadden) Parrott, was born in Lee County on January 28, 1970.

Anita received her formal education in the public schools of Lee County and was a 1988 graduate of Mt. Pleasant High School in Elliott, South Carolina. She went on to receive a degree in English from Morris College in Sumter, South Carolina. She was a member of many public service groups including Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

After graduation, Anita married and became a part of a military family traveling the world. She married Julius M. Bolds and to this union was born two sons Darius and Dante' Bolds (twins).

Anita believed in God and served as a faithful member of Mt. Pleasant A.M.E. Church from childhood through her young adult life. When her military family moved to Phoenix City, Alabama she became a faithful member of First Assembly of God. Anita remained with this ministry until she moved back to South Carolina where she connected with Rhema Word Restoration Ministries of Columbia, SC in 2021.

Anita was an employee of Fort Benning in Columbus, Georgia and then of Fort Jackson in Columbia, South Carolina when she relocated. She loved going to the beach and spending time with family.

Anita was preceded in death by her grandparents, Hughie and Carrie Lee Parrott and Fred D. McFadden and her aunt, Geraldine Parrott. She leaves to cherish her memories: her son, Darius Bolds of Columbia, SC, Dante' Bolds of Japan, her parents: Carl and Frederica (McFadden) Parrott of Lynchburg, SC, her grandmother: Rozell (Lowery) McFadden, her brother: Carl Deidrick (Camesha) Parrott of Columbia, SC, sister: Tammy Nixon of Raleigh, NC, three nieces: Tamera Nixon, Carlín and Cayla Parrott (twins), a nephew: Carl Deidrick Parrott II, a grandnephew: Amir Nixon, six uncles: Leroy (Margret) Odom, Joe L. (Ernestine) Parrott, Levi Parrott, Odell (Julie) Parrott, Alfred McFadden, Alex (Tyra) McFadden, six aunts: Emma (James) Johnson, Janie Parrott, Pauline (Gregory) Adams, Juanita Parrott, Loretta (Julius deceased) Thomas, and Oggretta (Curtis) Tyler; and a host of cousins, other family members and friends.
