Prayer Focuses Relationship with God

“To Pray is to Change. This is a great grace. How good of God to provide a path whereby our lives can be taken over by love and joy and peace and patience and kindness and goodness and faithfulness and gentleness and self-control.” [Richard Foster. Prayer Find the Heart's True Home. London: Houghton and Stoughton, 1988, 1992]

The branch is in the foreground, and the background is a soft-focus view of a white dove perched on a similar branch. The scene is bathed in warm, golden light, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. A semi-transparent white rounded rectangle is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing the text.

“Lord, teach us to pray as John
taught his disciples.”

The background of the image is a close-up of an olive branch with several green olives hanging from it. The branch is in the foreground, and the background is a soft, out-of-focus green. A white dove is visible in the background, flying towards the right. The text is overlaid on a white, rounded rectangular area on the right side of the image.

A bright sun flare is visible in the upper right corner, creating a warm, golden light across the scene. The text is overlaid on a semi-transparent white rounded rectangle in the right half of the image.

Proclaim God's
reign, or Kingdom
be established in all
we do. Justice and
truth are outcomes
of God's love.

The text is overlaid on the right side of the image, within a white rounded rectangle.

Forgive us our sins
– we name sins
and then live the
grace that God
uses to forgive us.

The practice of persistence in
prayer
And
Prayers are being
answered

Pray, trust God,
with simple prayer,
in our rhythm and
be immersed in God's grace.
