

“Church Culture: Be a Unifying Church Member”

- How does scripture guide me to contribute to the positive culture within my church (and all aspects of my life as a Christian)?
- 1 Corinthians 13:4-5.
- Practice patience, kindness, and humility in our relationships, especially in a world often driven by ego, competition, and instant gratification.
- John 13:35.
- Genuine love and compassion toward others is the most powerful way to reflect our values and beliefs in an increasingly divided world.
- Ephesians 1:15-16
- Recognize and give thanks for the faith and love we see in others, fostering a spirit of gratitude and encouragement in our communities.
- Ephesians 4:1-3.
- Live with humility, patience, and unity, qualities essential for building peace and cooperation in our diverse and often divided society.
- Colossians 3:14
- Love is the essential force that binds people together in harmony, even amid the complexity and conflict of today’s world.
- Romans 1:29-31
- Gossip is equally negative compared with a long list of actions which are reckless, harmful, and ungodly.
- James 3:6.
- Destructive words—especially in the age of social media—can spread harm quickly, so we must speak with care and responsibility.

- Psalm 34:12-13.
- Seek a fulfilling life by speaking truthfully and avoiding harmful or deceitful words, which is a principle especially vital in our fast-paced, media-driven world.
- Matthew 6:14-15
- Forgiving others is essential not only for spiritual well-being but also for healing relationships and reducing emotional burdens in everyday life.
- Colossians 3:12-13.
- Approach others with compassion, kindness, patience, and forgiveness—qualities that are essential for maintaining healthy relationships in today’s “me-centered” world where hostility is too common.
