

The Longest Prayer

John 17

This prayer is one of importance and significance, commonly called "The High Priestly Prayer of Jesus."

The prayer in John 17 is a wonderful, multilayered example of His love, His desire, His mission, and His care for us.

The relationship of Jesus (the man) talking to the Father (the creator).
God revealed himself as Father and Son and the relationship is the lesson.

Jesus prays for Himself in John 17:1-5

In Verse 1 and in Verse 5, Jesus calls it "glorify Me"

Glory comes from the process
