

40 Days

Daily Prayer Prompts

March 22-25

Tues, 03/22

Lord God, as we pray and fast today,

Will you help us remember that Your love is for all people, and not just for us? I ask you to help me see my neighbors, friends, family and strangers as beings created in your image. Help me and my Fellowship North family to love others well, today, individually and as Your gospel community.

Wed, 03/23

God,

You are wholly different from me, and yet You love me completely and perfectly. I sometimes struggle to love people who are different from me. Will You forgive me for that? And, in my times of prayer and fasting today, will You help me to identify the reasons that I struggle to love them so that I can confess, repent and grow in my love for others?

Thurs, 03/24

Holy Trinity,

When Jesus walked the earth, He taught us to love and pray for everyone, including our enemies. Today, I ask You for the opportunity to do that very difficult thing. When I encounter or see someone I dislike or with whom I disagree, will You show me one way to act lovingly toward them, this week?

Fri, 03/25

Father,

I confess that sometimes the person I love the least is myself. I look down on myself, listen to the enemy and believe things about myself that are not good or true. Will You help me to think of myself in the way You think of me? I pray, today, that I'll see myself the way You see me - as a beloved and cherished child of Yours.
