

40 Days

Daily Prayer Prompts

March 15-18

Tues, 03/15

Lord God of the Universe,

The first part of your mission is to love you with all my heart, soul, mind, and strength. Today, as I pray and fast, will you help me to identify one thing, person, idea, or dream that I'm tempted to love more than you? And, will you grant me the courage to face the truth when your Spirit identifies it?

Wed, 03/16

Giver of every good and perfect gift,

We dedicate our time of prayer and fasting to thanksgiving, today. Thank you for your love, grace, power, justice, creativity, patience, and redemption. I pray you hear, receive and are pleased by our expressions of gratitude today! I love you.

Thurs, 03/17

Father,

Will you help me understand what it means to truly love you with all that I am? In what areas of my life, am I reluctant to turn over to you? Will you help me - and all of us at Fellowship North - to love you by trusting you with every aspect of our lives?

Fri, 03/18

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,

Thank you for being the perfect, triune God that you are! During my moments of prayer and fasting today, I willfully declare that you are my hope and my joy. You alone are my strength and security. You loved me with all that you are, so I love you with all that I am.
