

Sometimes in the frantic rush of the Christmas season, we forget the wonderful part of Christmas is the fact that God became flesh in the person of Jesus Christ so that our sins could be forgiven, the most important and significant event of history.

“For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government will be upon his shoulder, and his name will be called “Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.” Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end, upon the throne of David, and over his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and righteousness from this time forth and forever more. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.”
Isaiah 9:6-7

We can read in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke all of the details of Jesus’s birth which took place over 2000 years ago which transformed and changed our world forever.

(Matthew 1:18-25, Luke 1:26-38, 2:1-20)

These scriptures will help us focus on Jesus during the holiday season and throughout the year. This will bring great happiness and joy; a time to be with family and friends, a time of abundant love, security, and sincere care for others. A time of peace and good will to all people.
