

Discussion Questions

- When you look around at the world today, what tends to discourage you? Cause fear or worry?
- On a scale from very fearful on one side to very courageous on the other, where do you think most Christians are these days? Why do you think that is? How about you- where would you put yourself?
- Read through the book of Esther- it's a great story! What parts of the book stand out to you?
- Imagine yourself in Esther's position as queen after Mordecai told her of Haman's plan. How do you think you'd have responded?
- Think about a situation in your life right now that you're tempted to give in to fear or to not move forward. What is God saying to you through the message of Esther?
- Write out a prayer, asking God to give you greater courage to follow Him more fearlessly. Ask Him to show you a next step of faithful trust.
