

A Declaration of Kingship

Mark 11:1-11

Jesus is the...

- _____ King who has all knowledge and is all sovereign
- _____ King who is fulfilling Scripture
- _____ King who is coming humbly
- _____ King who who will lay His life down
- _____ King who who rules over all nations
- _____ King who will come again in full power
- _____ King who beckons me to respond

*Jesus declares His Kingship by coming
the first time in humility and sacrifice;
He will come again as exalted King
to reign in complete power and authority.*

Discussion Questions

Use these discussion questions in your family, small group, discipleship group, etc. as a way to reflect and be obedient to the Word this week. The first and last questions are geared toward family discussion, and are reflected in the Kids Sermon Notes.

- Which attribute of Jesus that was mentioned today was the most encouraging? Which was the most challenging?
- What kind of Messiah did the people expect and want? What kind of savior do people want today?
- The Passion week of Jesus often seems like things are out of control. How is it encouraging to know that Jesus was in control of those events?
- Which of the attributes of Jesus mentioned today have been missing in your own view of Jesus?
- What are the differences in how Jesus came the first time, and how Jesus will come the second time?
