An Introduction to "In the Potter's Hands"

There is something so profound in watching how potters make their masterpieces... how each piece is deliberately formed and created. As the clay-work of God's hands, we often stay discouraged when Our Potter is working in us because we only see the mess instead of the masterpiece. This session introduces the theme of the Wednesday night workshops and reminds us to trust the Potter's process as He makes something beautiful in His time.

Join us Wednesday at 6:20pm
in the old choir room, C136.

Even In Her Darkness, She Called Him Lord

Mary Magdalene was a woman broken. She was bound by Satan. She was burdened by sin. She was broken by circumstances. She was blessed by Her Savior. She went from darkness to the light. She was a blessing in her brokenness to those around her. We too can be a blessing in our brokenness. In this session, we'll discover the path of brokenness in Mary Magdalene's life and how she was blessed by Her Savior. We will look at our own brokenness and discuss how the Lord uses His Word to be a light in our lives and to make us a blessing.

Join us Wednesday at 6:20pm
in the old choir room, C136.

Breaking Mom-Guilt With the Gospel

As moms, it's easy to get caught up in trying to perform, but never quite feeling like we measure up. If you find your inner critic running her mouth and running you down, there's good news for that! The good news of Christ is that His performance on your behalf was perfect. In this session, we'll look at how the Gospel frees us to parent in rest and hope, trusting that God is using us to shape our kids and that in the process, He is shaping us too!

Join us Wednesday at 6:20pm
in the old choir room, C136.

Transformed and Restored: God Wastes Nothing!

Do you trash things you can no longer use? God never does this. He doesn't ever throw anything or anyone to the curb. He wastes nothing in our lives... and He joyfully takes what we think is worthless, uses it, and makes priceless treasure in us and out of us. In this session, we'll experience this truth hands-on as you make a treasured piece of art from scraps considered as "trash."

Join us Wednesday at 6:20pm
in the old choir room, C136.

Brokenness: The Path to the Presence of God

We enter His gates with Thanksgiving, we enter His Courts with Praise, and we enter His presence through Prayer. In this session, we'll learn how to build a prayer journal based on the Spirit of God using the Word of God, along with spiritual brokenness. If you've ever wondered how to meet God in the deepest level of prayer, this is the session for you!

Breaking the Holy Huddle

Have you ever felt “left out” of a group? Being excluded can break hearts and lives. However, God-centered hospitality mends hurt hearts and draws people to Jesus. Whether you’re young, old, single, married, live with others, or live alone, God wants to use YOU, right where you are, to break the “holy huddle” to make others feel loved and valued. In this session, you'll learn how to intentionally break the Holy Huddle.

Join us Wednesday at 6:20pm
