

Student Parent Resources

Axis is a resource to keep parents up-to-date with what is going on in the culture with Gen Z. they have many different conversation packets and other resources to help have discussions with your teen on a range of topics. (social media, bullying, trafficking, etc.) They also send out a weekly newsletter with the biggest things in the culture that week.

Go to <https://axis.org/membership/> and add the $99 yearly membership to your cart. Once at the checkout they will need to use this coupon code: orgfamilylogins
This will allow you to set up an account with a username and password for FREE

Text the word "Student" to 662-263-9227 to stay updated with everything Longview students!

PARENT CUE

Create a FREE account with access to tons of free resources!

theparentcue.org

Student's Newsletter

Send Ryan a text or email with your name and email to get signed up to receive these monthly emails. It will cover upcoming events, what is being taught with access to parent pages for lessons, and a potential parent article from "experts". (not Ryan)

Ryan@LHBC.me