In Brad Waggoner's book, The Shape of Faith to Come, he identified eight signposts or marks of a disciple. The first of the signposts is engaging the Bible. "Transformation can be recognized when our mind is sharpened by the Bible, our perspective is shaped by the Bible, and our actions are directed by the Bible."

Engaging the Bible does not only involve reading the words on the page but also includes sharpening our minds and shaping our perspectives (or views of the world) by Biblical truth. This shaping should change what we value and pursue in life. Once our minds are sharpened by the Bible and our perspectives are shaped by the Bible, then our actions are directed or guided by the Bible. As Christ's disciples, we must dig into the Bible so this transformation will happen within our lives. Then, we can be disciples who bring glory to God as disciples who make disciples of all cultures!

GROUNDED

The GROUNDED journal is intentionally designed to help you grow and mature in your faith through the study of Scripture.

Deuteronomy 5:1, "Moses summoned all Israel and said to them, "Israel, listen to the statutes and ordinances I am proclaiming as you HEAR them today, learn and follow them carefully."

Psalms 78:1, "My people HEAR my instruction; listen to the words from my mouth."

Matthew 7:24-26, "Therefore, everyone who HEARS these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. The rain fell, the rivers rose, and the winds blew and pounded that house. Yet it didn't collapse, because its foundation was on the rock. But everyone who hears these words of mine and doesn't act on them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand."

Luke 11:28, "He said, 'Rather, blessed are those who HEAR the word of God and keep it.'"

John 14:24, "The one who doesn't love me will not keep my words. The word that you HEAR is not mine but is from the Father who sent me."

HEAR is an acronym that stands for:

Highlight

Explain

Apply

Respond

Three to five sentences in each of these four sections are sufficient to help you stay GROUNDED and live a Christ-centered life.

The H.E.A.R. Journal is a simple way to help you read the Bible with the intention of applying it. By asking some simple questions, you can understand and apply any passage. In addition, journaling is a great discipline because it helps you retain three times more of what you read.

There is not a set amount of H.E.A.R. Journal pages that you should complete each week, but the goal with this discipline, as with all of the others, is to improve as time goes on. Consider how often you currently journal and do "+1" of that. So, if you have never journaled, just try to complete a couple a week. If you journal occasionally, try to do it three times a week. The hope is that as you get more comfortable with this discipline and experience its benefits, you will want to increase this number throughout the year.

Take a look at the H.E.A.R. Journal example on the next page. As you read through your reading plan this week, use the H.E.A.R. Journal pages that are provided to help you as you read.

- H (HIGHLIGHT): What verse or verses stood out to you in your reading?
- E (EXPLAIN): What is the author's intended meaning in the context of this passage?
- A (APPLY): What is the principle to live by today?
- R (RESPOND): How will I respond to the application in my relationships and/or situations this week?

Sample H.E.A.R. Entry:

Read: Philippians 4:10-13

Date: April 1, 2022

H (Highlight):

"I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

Philippians 4:13

E (Explain):

Paul was telling the church at Philippi that he has discovered the secret of contentment. No matter the situation in Paul's life, he realized that Christ was all he needed, and Christ was the one who strengthened him to persevere through difficult times.

A (Apply):

In my life, I will experience many ups and downs. My contentment is not found in circumstances. Rather, it is based on my relationship with Jesus Christ. Only Jesus gives me the strength I need to be content in every circumstance of life.

R (Respond):

Lord Jesus, please help me as I strive to be content in You. Through Your strength, I can make it through any situation I must face.

HEAR

H – Highlight

- Book passage specifically that speaks to you
- Title or personal description of the passage

E – Explain

- Why was this written?
- To whom was it originally written?
- How does it fit into the context?
- Why did the Holy Spirit include it?
- What is He intending to communicate through the text?

A – Apply

- How can this help me?
- What does this mean today?
- What would the application of this verse look like in my life?
- What does this mean to me?
- What is God saying to me?

R – Respond

- What attitudes do I have that need to change because of the truth studied?
- What needs to change about my knowledge and understanding of God?
- What behavior or habits do I need to stop, continue, or start?
- What relationships are affected by the truth studied and what must I do about it?
- What motives need to be explored?
  - Doing the right thing for the wrong reason.
  - Doing the wrong thing for the right reason.
  - Doing the right thing for the right reason.
- Are my priorities in the correct order and do I value the things God values?
- Is there something about my character that God wants corrected based on this truth?

Starting a D-Group

Thank you so much for utilizing your Grounded Journal as your Bible reading and journaling guide. However, that is just the first step. The next step is to move into a D-Group. What is a D-Group? A D-Group consists of three to five members. The groups are gender-specific and meet for about twelve months for the purpose of multiplication, accountability, and spiritual growth. A group can meet longer but the ultimate goal is replication, starting new D-Groups to become disciples who disciple others.

How do I start a D-Group? Find three to five people (of the same gender) from your Community Group or friends that you serve alongside. Invite them to start a D-Group by showing this description and plan a time and place to meet.

What do you do in a D-Group? Here is a simple outline with some descriptions for each point of the outline.

Fellowship: 10 minutes - Spend the first ten minutes catching up. If you want, you can be more structured in this time and have each person share his or her "high" and "low" of the week.

Scripture Memory: 5-10 minutes - Have each person recite the verse and ask, "As you meditated on this verse, what stood out to you?"

Bible Reading and H.E.A.R. Journal: 20-25 minutes - Ask each person, "Which of your H.E.A.R. Journals stood out the most to you this week, and what are you doing about it?"

Accountability: 10-25 minutes - Our accountability time starts as we discuss our H.E.A.R. Journals and how we are responding. In addition, we always want to discuss the one person we are praying for that is far from God by asking, "How have you prayed for, invested in, and invited your one person this week?"

Here are some additional questions for the group as you get to know each other better:

Have you honored God and your spouse with your thoughts, words, and actions this week?

Have you spent quality time with your family this week?

Have you given in to any addictive behavior this past week? (alcohol, tobacco, video games, work, TV, etc)

Have you told any lies or half-truths this week?

Have you damaged another person by your words, either behind his or her back or face-to-face?

Have you participated in anything unethical this week?
Have you been completely honest with your answers today?
