Discussion Questions

Use these discussion questions in your family, small group, discipleship group, etc. as a way to reflect and be obedient to the Word this week. The first and last questions are geared toward family discussion, and are reflected in the Kids Sermon Notes.

- Which of the 10 Commandments do you consider the most important? Why?
- How does the Bible's definition of love differ from that of popular movies/books?
- How is obedience to these two great commands different from observation of religious ritual?
- How was Jesus an example of absolute love for God?
- How was He an example of perfect love for His neighbor?
