

What does the Bible teach?

Jesus commanded us to love each other. (John 13:34)

Jesus defined love by his own actions. (John 13:34)

Our love identifies and defines us. (John 13:35, 1John 2:10)

We have a heart problem when we have a love problem. (1 John 2:9, 11)

How should I respond?

We love because he first loved us. (1John 4:19)

Love your neighbor as yourself. (Matthew 22:39)

Do to others whatever you would like them to do to you. (Matthew 7:12 NLT)

Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. (Ephesians 4:32)

Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. (Colossians 3:12-14)
