
LIVE SENT.

Come Together

Acts 15:1-35

What does the Bible teach?

Differences over biblical truth must be addressed. (15:1-5)

The church should come together when differences exist. (15:6)

God brings unity to his church as it submits to him. (15:22-29)

The church's mission is unhindered when unity is present. (15:30-35)

How should I respond?

Deal with issues that will hinder or hurt the gospel.

Don't compromise truth.

Build, repair, and maintain unity.

So when they were sent off, they went down to Antioch, and having gathered the congregation together, they delivered the letter. And when they had read it, they rejoiced because of its encouragement.

Acts 15:30-31