February is often known as a month focused on love, but as followers of Christ, we are reminded that true love finds its source in God Himself. The Bible tells us in 1 John 4:19, "We love Him because He first loved us." As we move through this month, may FCABC reflect the selfless, faithful love of Christ in all we do.

It is also a good time to pause and consider the ways God calls us to live out that love within our own families, our church, and our community. Whether through a kind word, a helping hand, or a sincere prayer, each of us has opportunities every day to be the hands and feet of Jesus.

February can also be a time of spiritual renewal. As winter lingers, it reminds us that even in quieter seasons, God is still always at work, preparing us for growth in all circumstances and seasons. Let us remain faithful in prayer, committed to God's Word, and united as a body of believers.

As a church, may we continue to support one another, reach out to those in need, and glorify God in all things. Let us walk forward together in love, trusting the Lord to guide us and use us for His purposes.

"And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love." (1 Corinthians 13:13)

God Bless,

David

Thoughts for February

How are those new year's resolutions going? This is the time of year where a lot of people give up and fall back into old habits. I want to encourage you to think about this one question: "When I wake up tomorrow, how can I be faithful to God today?"

It can be easy to get caught up in all of the things we want to do and achieve. But the main thing we should focus on is how we can be faithful to God each day. Most of the time, faithfulness comes in little decisions we make each day. Do we choose to spend time in the Word and in prayer? Do we choose to show kindness and grace towards our spouse or that friend. Do we choose to give into temptation or resist it. Do we take responsibility or shift blame? Faithfulness isn't glamorous. It's little commitments to choose God's way over our way. And I want to be clear.

Faithfulness doesn't make God love us any more. We cannot make God love us more or love us less. But God does desire faithfulness from us. He is most glorified through our lives as we live faithful lives for Him.

So how can you be faithful to God today?

Sincerely,
Rev Trev
